August 24, 2005

Wal-Mart should not be be allowed to open an industrial bank in Utah!

Their organization is like an octopus - they would invade every home in the country if they thought they could get away with it -

They must be curtailed in some manner -
The stores are too large and not user friendly

M L Smoot
Provo, Utah