Subject: legacy loans

Send all the greedy cheaters to jail. 110% tax their income, take all their assets, let the cheaters and their families go homeless like so many others (and veterans are a big group of the homeless) and you will put a stop to all the greed that created this mess. Sorry, I'm talking to the government, which only understands how to spend, spend, spend their way out of a crisis (rather than work thru a crisis). Let the free market take its toll, destroy the economy and then life will get fixed. Most of you that have never really had to work and hold a job to make a living don't have a clue.
