Subject: Assessments, RIN 3064-AD35

Your actions by imposing a special assessment is just as criminal as the banks that have placed themselves in such a horrible state! I question your logic, theory or whatever you used to make this decisions. You are distroying the main street financial institutions. The culprits are receiving speical treatment from the government without accountability. Maybe it is time some of these institutions with their greedy nature, no management skills and no over sight fail. I am truly disappointed with your actions. Shame on you!
