

From: Melissa Holcroft [mailto:mholcroft@oceansidebank.com]

Sent: Wednesday, March 04, 2009 9:54 AM

To: Comments

Cc: info@icba.org.

Subject: SPECIAL ASSESSMENT

I think it is extremely unjust that the small community banks will be penalized for the misguided predatory lending practices of larger financial institutions. We did not participate in sub-prime lending and should not have to pay the price for those who did. My guess is now that Citibank is getting its third bailout installation, someone has to pay for it. It is just very sad that Main Street America is stuck with the bill.

Melissa Holcroft, AVP
Oceanside Bank
1315 S. Third Street
Jacksonville Beach, Florida 32250