Dear Robert Feldman:

I urge you to consider more reasonable funding options, such as; including increasing the FDIC's borrowing capacity and streamlining its own operations plus given the impact that the proposed assessment will have on my bank and my community, I strongly urge you to consider alternatives that would reduce our burden and provide the FDIC the funding its needs in the short term.i really feel that on a personal note that in the solution to these trials would be found in other alternatives. with all my respect.

Sincerely,
