Securitization Underwriter Services - Residential

The FDIC has developed a securitization program to facilitate the sale of secured real estate loans (residential performing and nonperforming) owned by banks for which the FDIC is appointed as conservator or receiver. The securitizations will be in the form of private or public offerings. The FDIC has selected the following firms to underwrite securities backed by a pool of loans identified by the FDIC, from one or more banks. The Underwriter will assist the FDIC and/or any of its financial advisors, in connection with the FDIC's Program, with respect to analyzing the Loans and the results of due diligence obtained on the Loans. The Underwriter may propose alternative structures and disposition strategies, and recommend an optimal securitization structure, assist the FDIC in reviewing and monitoring the preparation of transaction documentation. The Underwriter may also work with the credit rating agencies to potentially obtain credit ratings for the securities, coordinate the marketing and settlement process, and support the securities in the secondary market.

Translation/Transcreation/Interpretation Services

FDIC requires the use of translation services and transcreation services for documents acquired from failed or failing financial institutions as well as interpretation services on a periodic basis when a failing bank has a customer base that transacts business in a foreign language. Throughout the period of performance services may be provided at the contractor's offices, a failed institution or any other FDIC controlled location necessary to support FDIC's efforts.
