THIS SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND MUTUAL RELEASE

("Settlement Agreement") is entered into and made effective as of the 1st day of April, 2010 ("Effective Date"), by and between the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation as Receiver of IndyMac Bank, FSB ("FDIC") and DLJ Mortgage Capital, Inc. RELEASE

1.5 Unknown Claims. Each Party acknowledges that this Settlement Agreement applies to all claims for injuries, damages, or losses of any type or nature (whether those injuries, damages, or losses are known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, patent or latent) which that Party may have against the other Party arising from the obligation to repurchase and/or indemnify for losses associated with the LOANS. Each Party hereby expressly waives application of California Civil Code §1542 and any other similar statute or rule.

1.6 Each Party certifies that they have read and understood the following provisions of California Civil Code §1542, which states in pertinent part as follows:

“A general release does not extend to claims which the creditor does not know or suspect to exist in his or her favor at the time of executing the release, which if known by him or her must have materially affected his or her settlement with the debtor.”

1.7 Each Party understands and acknowledges that the significance and consequence of its waiver of California Civil Code §1542 is that even if any Party should eventually suffer additional damages arising out of the obligation to repurchase and/or indemnify for losses associated with the LOANS, the claims and causes of action that were or could have been asserted relating to obligation to the repurchase and/or indemnify for losses associated with the LOANS, or any facts or circumstances related to the obligation to repurchase and/or indemnify for losses associated with the LOANS, that Party will not be able to make any claim against the other Party for those damages. Furthermore, each acknowledges that they consciously intend these consequences even as to claims for damages that may exist as of the date of this release but which that Party does not know exists, and which, if known, would materially affect that Party's decision to execute this release, regardless of whether that Party's lack of knowledge is the result of ignorance, oversight, error, negligence, or any other cause.

1.8 Each Party hereby fully, finally, and forever releases and discharges the other Party, and any and all of its respective past, present, and future affiliates, employees, members, partners, joint venturers, independent contractors, attorneys, insurers, investors, successors, assigns, representatives, officers, directors, shareholders, independent contractors, predecessors, successors and assigns, and any corporation, partnership or limited liability company which was or is at any time the parent or wholly owned subsidiary of such entity, and any such corporation's, partnership's or limited liability company's officers, directors, employees, or any corporation, partnership or limited liability company which was or is an affiliate of such entity by virtue of common ownership or control, and any such corporation's, partnership's or limited liability company's, officers, directors, and/or employees of and from any and all actions, causes of action, claims, demands, damages, debts, losses, costs, expenses, attorney fees or other liabilities of every kind and nature whatsoever, whether legal or equitable and whether known or unknown, arising out of, resulting from, or relating to, in any manner, the obligation under the CONTRACT to repurchase and/or indemnify for losses associated with the LOANS, the claims and causes of action that were or could have been asserted relating to the obligation under the CONTRACT to repurchase and/or indemnify for losses associated with the LOANS, or any facts or circumstances related to the obligation under the CONTRACT to repurchase and/or indemnify for losses associated with the LOANS.

1.9 Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement, the FDIC does not release, and expressly preserves fully and to the same extent as if the Agreement had not been executed any claims against DLJ arising out of existing or failed financial institutions other than IndyMac Bank, FSB.

1.10 Notwithstanding any other provision in this Settlement Agreement, the FDIC does not release, and expressly preserves fully and to the same extent as if the Settlement Agreement had not been executed any action taken by any other federal agency. In addition, this Settlement Agreement does not purport to waive, or intend to waive, any claims which could be brought by the United States through either the Department of Justice or the United States Attorney's Office for any federal judicial district. In addition, the FDIC specifically reserves the right to seek court ordered restitution pursuant to the relevant provisions of the Victim and Witness Protection Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3663, et seq., if appropriate.

1.11 Conditions of Execution. Each Party acknowledges and warrants that its execution of this Settlement Agreement is free and voluntary.

1.12 No Admission. It is agreed that no Party hereto admits liability or wrongdoing of any nature, and that this Settlement Agreement is made as a compromise of disputed claims.

1.13 Fair Meaning. The Parties hereto further agree that the language of all parts of this Settlement Agreement shall in all cases be construed as a whole, according to its fair meaning, and not strictly for or against any of the Parties.

1.14 Governing Law. The Parties agree to submit to the Courts of the County of New York, New York, for any dispute arising out of this Settlement Agreement, or related thereto, and consent to the jurisdiction of said Courts and further agree that any and all matters of dispute shall be adjudicated, governed and controlled under New York law.

1.15 Attorneys' Fees. Should any action be commenced to enforce, interpret, or seek damages, injunctive relief, or specific performance for violation of this Settlement Agreement, the prevailing party shall, in addition to any other available relief, be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney's fees and litigation expenses incurred in the prosecution or defense of the action, including any appeal.

1.16 Severability. The Parties hereto agree that if any provision of this Settlement Agreement is declared by any court to be illegal or invalid, the validity of the remaining parts, terms or provisions shall not be affected thereby, and such illegal or invalid part, term or provision shall be deemed not to be part of this Settlement Agreement.

1.17 Binding Effect. This Settlement Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties and their respective heirs, personal representatives, successors, and assigns.

1.18 Review and Understanding. The Parties have entered into this Settlement Agreement voluntarily, having fully read and fully understanding the meaning and effect of all of its terms and provisions, and fully understanding its and their costs and risks. Each Party has consulted with legal counsel concerning this Settlement Agreement and has conducted such inquiry as they deem necessary and advisable prior to entering into this Settlement Agreement. The Parties enter into this Settlement Agreement understanding that facts or other circumstances may exist which are presently unknown or undisclosed, or which are different from or other than those which they believe to be the case, and the Parties voluntarily assume all risks attendant to such unknown, undisclosed, different, or additional facts or other circumstances.

1.19 Approval and Authority. The Parties represent and warrant to one another that the approval of this Settlement Agreement has been undertaken in a proper and lawful manner and that they have the requisite power and authority to enter into and to perform their obligations under this Settlement Agreement. The FDIC warrants and represents that it has retained, owns and/or has the rights to settle and release all repurchase and indemnification claims relating to the LOANS.

1.20 Number. Whenever applicable, the singular shall include the plural, and the plural shall include the singular.

1.21 Counterparts/Execution. This Settlement Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, all of which shall form a single agreement. A Party's signature on this Settlement Agreement by facsimile shall be valid and effective for all purposes as an original signature, provided, however, that the original signature shall be produced upon request.

1.22 Waiver. No term or condition of this Settlement Agreement shall be deemed to have been waived, nor shall there be an estoppel against the enforcement of any provision of this Settlement Agreement, except by written instruments signed by the Party charged with the waiver or estoppel. No written waiver shall be deemed a continuing waiver unless specifically stated therein, and the written waiver shall operate only as to the specific term or condition waived, and not for the future or as to any other act than that specifically waived.

1.23 Headings. The headings of paragraphs herein are intended solely for the convenience of reference and shall not control the meaning or interpretation of any of the provisions of this Settlement Agreement.

1.24 Subsequent Agreements. The Parties agree that, upon the reasonable request of the other Party, they shall execute, acknowledge, and deliver any additional instruments or documents that may reasonably be required to carry out the intentions of this Settlement Agreement, including such instruments as may be required by the laws of any jurisdiction, now in effect or hereinafter enacted, that may affect the rights of the Parties as between themselves or others with respect to their rights and obligations created by this Settlement Agreement.

1.25 Entire Agreement. The Parties hereto further agree and promise that this Settlement Agreement sets forth the entire agreement between and among the Parties with respect to the claims made by IndyMac Bank, FSB and the FDIC in connection with the alleged breaches of the CONTRACT in connection with the LOANS, and fully supersedes any and all prior negotiations, agreements or understandings made between or among the Parties. This Settlement Agreement shall not be modified except in a writing signed by the Parties or their authorized representatives.
