

Mission

The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) is an independent agency created by the Congress to maintain stability and public confidence in the nation's financial system by:

- insuring deposits,
- examining and supervising financial institutions for safety and soundness and consumer protection, and
- managing receiverships.

Vision

The FDIC is a recognized leader in promoting sound public policies; addressing risks in the nation's financial system; and carrying out its insurance, supervisory, consumer protection, and receivership management responsibilities.

Values

The FDIC and its employees have a tradition of distinguished public service. Six core values guide us in accomplishing our mission:

1. Integrity

We adhere to the highest ethical and professional standards.

2. Competence

We are a highly skilled, dedicated, and diverse workforce that is empowered to achieve outstanding results.

3. Teamwork

We communicate and collaborate effectively with one another and with other regulatory agencies.

4. Effectiveness

We respond quickly and successfully to risks in insured depository institutions and the financial system.

5. Accountability

We are accountable to each other and to our stakeholders to operate in a financially responsible and operationally effective manner.

6. Fairness

We respect individual viewpoints and treat one another and our stakeholders with impartiality, dignity, and trust.
