ESTIMATED REPORTING BURDEN

Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average one-hour per response, including the time for reviewing the instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to the Paper Reduction Act Clearance Officer, Legal Division, Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, Washington, D.C. 20429; and to the Office of Management and Budget, Paperwork Reduction Project (3064-0072), Washington, D.C. 20503. An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number.

PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT

Collection of this information is authorized by the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, 12 U.S.C. §§ 1891, and 1821. This information will be primarily used to examine a contractor's eligibility for potential FDIC contract awards and the information provided may be disclosed to licensing authorities by the FDIC in examining the contractor's eligibility.

Information may also be disclosed to appropriate Federal, state, or local agencies for law enforcement purposes when a violation or possible violation of a civil or criminal law is apparent; to individuals involved in judicial or administrative proceedings; and to a Congressional office in response to an inquiry made at the individual's request. Information may also be disclosed in accordance with the other routine uses set forth in the FDIC's Financial Information System 30-64-0012. Furnishing the requested information, including your Social Security Number, is voluntary. However, failure to furnish all requested information may preclude you from receiving an FDIC contract.

I. PREAMBLE

Contractor is subject to the provisions of 12 Code of Federal Regulations Chapter III, Part 366, which may be found at: www.fdic.gov/buying/goods/acquisition/index.html. The following representations and eligibility certifications shall be executed by an official authorized to bind the contractor, and shall be returned with its proposal. These representations and certifications concern matters within the jurisdiction of an agency of the United States, and the making of a false, fictitious, or fraudulent certification may render the contractor and/or certifying official subject to prosecution under 18 United States Code (U.S.C.) § 1001, 1007, and 1014. For purposes of these certifications, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) is considered an agency of the United States only with respect to its rights and remedies under 18 U.S.C. The offeror shall provide notice to the Contracting Officer within 10 business days or at any time prior to contract award, if the contractor learns that one or more of these certifications was erroneous when submitted or has become erroneous by reason of changed circumstances. In addition, any such misrepresentations or miscertifications may render the contractor and/or the certifying official subject to administrative remedies by the FDIC, to include suspension and/or exclusion from contracting, or termination of contract, (12 CFR 366.16; 12 CFR Part 367).

Yes       No (If yes, explain below.)

(c) Has the contractor demonstrated a pattern or practice of defalcation regarding obligations?

Yes       No (If yes, explain below.)

FDIC INTEGRITY AND FITNESS REPRESENTATIONS AND CERTIFICATIONS

(d) Is the contractor responsible for a substantial loss to a Federal deposit insurance fund?

- Yes       No (if yes, explain below.)

As used herein, "pattern or practice of defalcation" is described in 12 CFR 366.4 and "a substantial loss to a Federal deposit insurance fund" is described in 12 CFR 366.5 both are reproduced in Part III of these representations and certifications for your convenience.

3. Representations as to Conflicts of Interest (12 CFR 366.9)

Answers to the following four (4) questions regarding conflicts of interest are provided for the contractor, any persons that own or control the contractor or you own or control; and any officers, management officials, employees, agents, or subcontractors who will perform services under the contract:

(a) Do any such person(s) have a personal, business, or financial interest or relationship that relates to the services you perform under the contract?

- Yes       No (if yes, explain below.)

(b) Are any such person(s) a party to litigation against us, or represents a party that is?

- Yes       No (if yes, explain below.)

(c) Are any such person(s) submitting an offer to acquire an asset from us for which services were performed during the past three years, unless the contract allows for the acquisition?

- Yes       No (if yes, explain below.)

(d) Does the contractor recognize that it generally may not later purchase assets it will manage under this contract and performance of this contract may disqualify the contractor from follow-up work where information obtained in the performance of the contract gives the contractor an unfair competitive advantage?

- Yes       No (if no, explain below.)

FDIC INTEGRITY AND FITNESS REPRESENTATIONS AND CERTIFICATIONS

If the contractor cannot certify that there are no conflicts of interest, it may describe the circumstances of any conflicts and request a waiver in accordance with CFR 366.10 or propose a method for the elimination of the conflict.

4. Representations as to Defaults (12 CFR 366.14(b))

Has the contractor or any company under the contractor's control defaulted on a material obligation during the five (5) years proceeding the submission of this offer?

Yes  No (If yes, attach a description of all such instances.)

A "default on a material obligation" occurs when a loan or advance with an outstanding balance of more than $50,000 is or was delinquent for ninety (90) days or more.

5. Representations as to Employees and Subcontractors (12 CFR 366.14(d))

Does the contractor agree that without a waiver, it will employ only persons who meet the requirements of 12 CFR part 366 to perform services on behalf of FDIC?

Yes  No (If no, explain below.)

6. Retention of Information

A contractor must retain the information upon which it relied in preparing its integrity and fitness representations and making its certifications during the term of the contract and for a period of three (3) years following the termination or expiration of the contract, and make such information available for review by FDIC upon request.

IV. SIGNATURE

By signature hereto, the offeror certifies that all of the representations and certifications contained in its proposal are complete and accurate as required by this solicitation, and that it is aware of the penalty prescribed in 18 U.S.C. § 1001 for making false statements in proposal. The contractor also agrees to notify the FDIC in writing within 10 days after discovering that it or any person performing services under an FDIC contract has any change for any answer contained within these representations and certifications. Such notification shall contain a detailed description of the condition and may include a statement of how the contractor intends to resolve such condition. Further, the offeror by signature hereto gives express authorization and consent to the FDIC for the FDIC to release information contained herein to licensing authorities in the examination of the contractor's eligibility for potential contract awards.
