I recommend under no circumstance this ridiculous and corrupt proposal by the comptroller to prohibit the the use of reputational risk be adopted, for the following but not limited to reasons:

1. There are no studies or evidence to justify or employ this prohibition. On the contrary protecting the banking system is important as evidenced by the 2008 tax payer bailout of republicans and Wall street.
2. Another reason is an example of Deutsche bank a once repsected financial institution but was caught in the fraud conducted by the felonious and properly convicted trump oraganization, whereas Deutsche bank loaned the convicted trump organization money based on SAR's.
3. We need to get religion out of politics and public life. The recent multitude of sex scandals plaguing the evangelicals this month demonstrate the hypocrits are corrupt and not fit to be in public.
