Meeting of FDIC Staff with representatives from banking industry trade groups and members.

12/16/2025

Summary

On December 16, 2025, FDIC staff from the Division of Depositor and Consumer Protection and the Legal Division met with representatives from banking industry trade groups, including the American Bankers Association (ABA) and Bank Policy Institute (BPI), along with representatives from their member banks and other industry groups regarding the FDIC's Notice of Proposed Rulemaking on sections 328.4 and 328.5 of the FDIC's regulations relating to display of the FDIC official digital sign and non-deposit signage. Participants generally discussed issues raised in a comment letter submitted by ABA and BPI and other issues regarding the proposed changes and how they would affect insured depository institutions.
