5. Release by Hackney. Subject to full performance of the obligations and representations and warranties set forth in this Agreement, and effective simultaneously with the release granted in Paragraph 4, above, Hackney, on behalf of itself individually and for each and every one of its respective current and former officers, directors, joint venturers, partners, employees, agents, servants, administrators, executors, predecessors, successors, subsidiaries, parents, affiliates, attorneys, insurers, representatives and assigns, conservators and/or receivers, and all persons or entities acting by, through, under, for, on behalf of, or in concert with them, past or present, fully and forever release, acquit and discharge the FDIC and its current and former officers, directors, joint venturers, partners, employees, agents, servants, administrators, executors, predecessors, successors, subsidiaries, parents, affiliates, attorneys, insurers, representatives and assigns, conservators and/or receivers, and all persons or entities acting by, through, under, for, on behalf of, or in concert with them (the "FDIC Releasees"), past or present, jointly and severally, from and against any and all rights, claims, debts, demands, acts, agreements, liabilities, obligations, damages, costs, fees (including, without limitation, those of attorneys), expenses, actions and/or causes of action of every nature, character and description, or causes of liability, rights and offset rights, whether at law or in equity, whether known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, asserted or unasserted, including without limitation injunctive or equitable relief, any award of actual, consequential, incidental, liquidated, or other types or categories of damages, any award of punitive or exemplary damages, any claims for attorneys' fees, costs or expenses of litigation and any other type of relief which Hackney may have or might have against the FDIC, the FDIC Releasees or any of them, pertaining to the Loan, the Property, the Complaint, and any and all facts, occurrences and transactions alleged in the Action, provided, however, that this release is not a general release but is expressly and specifically limited to the Loan, the Property, the Complaint, and any and all facts, occurrences and transactions alleged in the Action, and is not intended nor shall it be deemed to release any other claims, demands, causes of actions, debts, obligations, losses damages, liabilities, costs, expenses, attorneys' fees, penalties, compensation, right to indemnity and/or demands as to any other loans or matters that Hackney may have or might have against the FDIC or the FDIC Releasess, including without limitation any other claims, demands or actions regarding any other matter.

- 6. Express Reservations from Releases by FDIC. Notwithstanding any other provision contained herein, by this Agreement, the FDIC does not release, and expressly preserves fully and to the same extent as if the Agreement had not been executed (a) any claims or causes of action that do not arise from or relate to (i) the Loan, (ii) the Property, or (iii) any and all facts, occurrences and transactions alleged in the Action, and (b) any action taken by or any claims that may be asserted by any other federal agency as to any matters, including without limitation any matters that may be based upon or arise out of the acts alleged in the Action. In addition, this Agreement does not purport to waive, nor is it intended to waive, any claims which could be brought by the United States through either the Department of Justice, the United States Attorney's Office for the State of California, Central District, or any other federal judicial district, including any rights, if appropriate, to court ordered restitution pursuant to the relevant provisions of the Victim and Witness Protection Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3663, et sec.
- 7. No Admission of Liability. The FDIC acknowledges that this Agreement does not constitute an admission by Hackney as to the merits of any claim that the FDIC or its predecessors in interest, including IndyMac, has asserted, or could have asserted, in the Action and that Hackney has denied and continues to deny that Hackney has any liability to the FDIC as alleged in the Action. Likewise, Hackney acknowledges that this Agreement does not constitute an admission by the FDIC that any asserted claim is or was in any way lacking in merit, and Hackney also acknowledges that this Agreement does not constitute an admission by the FDIC as to the merits of any claim that Hackney has asserted, or could have asserted, in the Action. Nevertheless, the FDIC and Hackney have concluded that continued litigation would be expensive and protracted and that it is desirable that the Action be settled fully and finally as between the FDIC and Hackney in the manner and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement.

8. Waiver under Section 1542 of California Civil Code. Subject to the limitations contained therein and in paragraph 6, above, the releases as set forth in paragraphs 4 and 5 are intended by the Parties to be read and interpreted as broadly as possible to affect the releases set forth therein regardless of whether the claims are presently known or unknown to the Parties. This Agreement is made by the FDIC and Hackney freely and with independent legal advice and counsel, and the FDIC and Hackney are fully aware of the provisions of Section 1542 of the Civil Code of the State of California, which reads as follows:

"A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS WHICH THE CREDITOR DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING
THE RELEASE, WHICH IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER MUST HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR."

However, this is a limited release and not a general release and is only intended to release those claims specifically identified in paragraphs 4 and 5 of the Agreement and is specifically limited by the limitations contained in those paragraphs and in paragraph 6 of this Agreement. Nevertheless, to the extent Civil Code section 1542 (as well as any other or successor law of similar effect) applies to the Agreement, the FDIC and Hackney waive any rights, benefits and protections they may have under section Civil Code 1542 to the extent necessary to effectuate the Releases set forth herein in Paragraphs 4 through 6, inclusive, herein.

- 9. Representations and Warranties. The Parties represent and warrant to and agree with each other as follows:
 - a. The FDIC and Hackney have received independent legal advice from attorneys of their choice with respect to the advisability of entering into this Agreement and of giving the releases provided herein.
 - b. In connection with the execution of this Agreement and the making of the settlement provided for herein, no Party to this Agreement has relied upon any statement, representation or promise of any other Party not expressly contained herein.

of this Agreement, the role of the Party in drafting and preparation of the Agreement shall not be referred to in order to construe the Agreement against that Party, and the canon of contractual interpretation shall not be applied.

f. This Agreement has been carefully read by each of the Parties and the contents thereof are known and understood by each of the Parties. This Agreement is signed freely by each party executing it.

g. The Parties have not assigned or transferred any of their claims being released herein.
