9. Release by Hansen and FGA. Subject to full performance of the obligations and representations and warranties set forth in this agreement, and effective simultaneously with the release granted in paragraph 7, above, Hansen and FGA, on behalf of themselves individually and for each and every one of their respective current and former officers, directors, joint venturers, partners, employees, agents, servants, administrators, executors, predecessors, successors, subsidiaries, parents, affiliates, attorneys, insurers, representatives and assigns, conservators and/or receivers, and all persons or entities acting by, through, under, for, on behalf of, or in concert with them, past or present, fully and forever release, acquit and discharge Plaintiff and its current and former officers, directors, joint venturers, partners, employees, agents, servants, administrators, executors, predecessors, successors, subsidiaries, parents, affiliates, attorneys, insurers, representatives, and all persons or entities acting by, through, under, for, on behalf of, or in concert with them, past or present, jointly and severally, from and against any and all rights, claims, debts, demands, acts, agreements, liabilities, obligations, damages, costs, fees (including, without limitation, those of attorneys), expenses, actions and/or causes of action of every nature, character and description, or causes of liability, rights and offset rights, whether at law or in equity, whether known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, asserted or unasserted, including without limitation injunctive or equitable relief, any award of actual, consequential, incidental, liquidated, or other types or categories of damages, any award of punitive or exemplary damages, any claims for attorneys' fees, costs or expenses of litigation and any other type of relief which Hansen, FGA, or any of them have, may have or might have against Plaintiff pertaining to the Property and the Complaint, provided, however, that this release is not a general release but is expressly and specifically limited to the Property and the Complaint, and is not intended nor shall it be deemed to release any other claims, demands, causes of actions, debts, obligations, losses damages, liabilities, costs, expenses, attorneys' fees, penalties, compensation, right to indemnity and/or demands as to any other loans or matters that Hansen, FGA, or any of them, may have or might have against Plaintiff, including without limitation any other claims, demands or actions regarding any other matter.

10. Defendants' Mutual Release. Hansen and FGA, on one hand, and Vasel, on the other hand, on behalf of themselves and their respective successors and assigns, forever remise, waive, discharge, terminate, extinguish, abandon, and otherwise release all claims against one another, with prejudice, each has had, now has or may hereafter have against the other and such other's respective officers, directors, employees, former employees, attorneys, and parent, subsidiary and affiliated entities, arising in whole or in part out of or otherwise relating to the Property and/or the Complaint.

11. Express Reservations from Releases by Plaintiff. Notwithstanding any other provision contained herein, by this agreement, Plaintiff does not release, and expressly preserves fully and to the same extent as if the agreement had not been executed (a) any claims or causes of action that do not arise from or relate to (i) the Property or (ii) any and all facts, occurrences and transactions alleged in the Action. Additionally, this agreement does not waive or release any claim Plaintiff may have relating to or arising from the Property other than the Property at issue in the Action.

12. No Admission of Liability. Plaintiff acknowledges that this agreement does not constitute an admission by the Defendants as to the merits of any claim that the FDIC or its predecessors in interest, including IndyMac, has asserted, or could have asserted, in the Action and that the Defendants have denied and continue to deny that the Defendants have any liability to Plaintiff as alleged in the Action. Likewise, the Defendants acknowledge that this agreement does not constitute an admission by Plaintiff that any asserted claim is or was in any way lacking in merit, and the Defendants also acknowledges that this agreement does not constitute an admission by Plaintiff as to the merits of any claim that the Defendants have asserted, or could have asserted, in the Action. Nevertheless, Plaintiff and the Defendants have concluded that continued litigation would be expensive and protracted and that it is desirable that the Action be settled fully and finally as between Plaintiff and the Defendants in the manner and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this agreement.

13. Waiver under Section 1542 of California Civil Code. Subject to the limitations contained therein and in paragraph 11, above, the releases as set forth in paragraphs 6 and 7 are intended by the Parties to be read and interpreted as broadly as possible to affect the releases set forth therein regardless of whether the claims are presently known or unknown to the Parties. This agreement is made by the Plaintiff and Defendants freely and with independent legal advice and counsel, and Plaintiff and the Defendants are fully aware of the provisions of Section 1542 of the Civil Code of the State of California, which reads as follows:

"A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS WHICH THE CREDITOR DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS

OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE, WHICH IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER MUST HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR."

However, this is a limited release and not a general release and is only intended to release those claims specifically identified in paragraphs 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10 of the agreement and is specifically limited by the limitations contained in those paragraphs and in paragraph 11 of this agreement. Nevertheless, to the extent Civil Code section 1542 (as well as any other or successor law of similar effect) applies to the agreement, Plaintiff and the Defendants waive any rights, benefits and protections they may have under section Civil Code 1542 to the extent necessary to effectuate the Releases set forth herein in paragraphs 6 through 10 inclusive, herein.

14. Representations and Warranties. The Parties represent and warrant to and agree with each other as follows:

- a. The Plaintiff and the Defendants have received independent legal advice from attorneys of their choice with respect to the advisability of entering into this agreement and of giving the releases provided herein.
- b. In connection with the execution of this agreement and the making of the settlement provided for herein, no Party to this agreement has relied upon any statement, representation or promise of any other Party not expressly contained herein.
- c. This agreement is fully integrated and contains the entire agreement of the Parties hereto. There are no agreements or understandings between the Parties hereto relating to the matters and releases referred to in this agreement other than as set forth in this agreement, and this agreement supersedes and replaces any and all prior negotiations and agreements between the Parties hereto, whether written or oral.

- d. Plaintiff and Defendants have made such investigation of the facts pertaining to the releases contained herein as they deem necessary.
- e. The terms of this agreement are contractual and are the result of negotiation among the parties. Each Party has cooperated in the drafting and preparation of this agreement. Hence, in any construction to be made of this agreement, the role of the Party in drafting and preparation of the agreement shall not be referred to in order to construe the agreement against that Party, and the canon of contractual interpretation shall not be applied.
- f. This agreement has been carefully read by each of the Parties and the contents thereof are known and understood by each of the Parties. This agreement is signed freely by each party executing it.
- g. The Parties have not assigned or transferred any of their claims being released herein.

15. Consideration. The consideration received in connection with this agreement is fair, adequate and substantial and consists only of the terms set forth in this agreement.

16. Modifications. This agreement may not be amended, canceled, revoked or otherwise modified except by written agreement subscribed by all of the Parties to be charged with such modification.

17. Agreement Binding on Successors and Assigns. This agreement shall be binding upon, and shall inure to the benefit of, the Parties hereto and their respective officers, directors, joint venturers, partners, employees, agents, servants, heirs, administrators, executors, successors, representatives and assigns.

18. Applicable Law. This agreement has been negotiated and exchanged in the State of Florida. As such, this agreement and all matters relating thereto shall be governed by the laws of the State of Florida without regard to its principles of conflicts of law. In addition, in the event of any disputes arising between the Parties out of this agreement, the Parties agree that the exclusive venue in which all disputes shall be resolved shall be by way of an action filed in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida (but only if such court has subject matter jurisdiction over the disputes).

19. Execution and Delivery Required – Effective Date. This instrument shall not be considered to be the agreement (defined above) or an enforceable contract, nor shall it create any obligation whatsoever on the part of any or all of the Parties, nor shall it or any of its terms constitute an undertaking by any of the Parties, unless and until the date on which counterparts of it have been signed by and exchanged amongst Plaintiff and any Defendant (via facsimile, e-mail or otherwise). If Plaintiff and any Defendant sign and exchange counterparts of the agreement, the agreement shall be effective and become the agreement between Plaintiff and that Defendant and shall become a binding and enforceable contract between Plaintiff and that Defendant, regardless of whether the other Defendant signs the agreement and exchanges counterparts with Plaintiff. Plaintiff shall have the right to revoke its signature to the agreement as to any Defendant, until that Defendant has signed the agreement and exchanged counterparts with Plaintiff. Any Defendant shall have the right to revoke its signature to the agreement, until Plaintiff signs and exchanges counterparts with that Defendant. Transmittal of a counterpart signature page signed by a Party (or by his or its attorney-in-fact pursuant to a duly executed power of attorney authorizing the same) via facsimile or e-mail shall be one way in which this agreement may be transmitted and formed. Defendants shall also forward the original, signed counterpart to Plaintiff via overnight delivery.

20. Construction. Each of the masculine, feminine and neuter genders shall include the others. The singular shall include the plural and vice-versa. This agreement is the product of negotiation between parties and as such, shall not be construed as though all or any part of it was drafted by any particular Party.

21. Severability. In the event any provision of this agreement shall be held to be void, voidable or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

22. Warranty of Authority. Each Party or attorney whose signature is affixed hereto in a representative capacity represents and warrants that he or she is authorized to execute this agreement on behalf of and to bind the entity on whose behalf his or her signature is affixed and that he or she is acting in the scope of such agency and authority. Each Party specifically represents and warrants that no signatures other than those made on this agreement are necessary to bind the Parties to all of the obligations imposed by the agreement.

23. Attorneys' Fees and Costs. Plaintiff and the Defendants each agree to pay their own costs, attorneys' fees and expenses incurred in connection with the Action. In the event that any action, suit or other proceeding is instituted to remedy, prevent or obtain relief from a breach of this agreement, arising out of a breach of this agreement, involving claims within the scope of the release contained in this agreement or pertaining to a declaration of rights under this agreement, the prevailing Party shall recover its reasonable attorneys' fees incurred in each and every such action, suit or other proceeding, including any and all appeals or petitions therefrom.

24. Counterparts. This agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which when executed and delivered shall be an original, and all of which when executed shall constitute one and the same instrument. Signatures on this agreement, or any counterpart of this agreement, transmitted by facsimile machine or electronic mail in pdf format shall have the same force and effect as original signatures.

25. Captions and Headings. The captions, paragraph numbers and paragraph headings appearing in this agreement are inserted only as a matter of convenience and in no way define, limit, construe or describe the scope or intent of this agreement, nor in any way affect this agreement.

26. Notices. Any notice required under this agreement shall be in writing and shall be sent via both e-mail and either by (i) hand delivery or certified or registered mail, postage prepaid, with return receipt requested, or (ii) fax, with a conformed copy by US Mail, postage prepaid, and with such writing to be addressed to the Parties as follows:

32. Jury Trial Waiver. The Parties hereby waive any and all rights that they may otherwise have to a trial by jury in any action, proceeding, claim, counterclaim or third party complaint, whether in contract or tort, at law or in equity, arising out of or in any way related to this agreement.

33. Entire Agreement. This agreement contains the complete agreement of the Parties concerning the subjects of this agreement and supersedes all prior drafts of this agreement and all other prior agreements, promises, acknowledgements, representations and warranties, if any, that may have been made between or among the Parties concerning that subject of this agreement, whether in connection with the negotiation of this agreement or otherwise. This agreement has been the product of negotiation. The Parties have had the opportunity to obtain independent advice from counsel. Prior draft documents were prepared, exchanged and discussed by some or all of the Parties before finally reaching and entering into this agreement. In any number of instances, words used in prior drafts may have been changed or removed from the language ultimately agreed to in this agreement. In the event of a dispute over the meaning of any of the provisions or requirements of this agreement, the fact that other words may have been used or deleted from earlier draft documents or provisions in such draft documents that were modified before being included herein, shall not be used to aid in the construction of the meaning and legal effect of this agreement. This agreement may not be modified or changed except by a written instrument executed by all of the Parties and no rights under it may be waived except by a writing signed by the waiving Party. No promises, representations, warranties, agreements or
