

SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE AGREEMENT

This Settlement and Release Agreement (“Agreement”) is made by, between, and among the following undersigned parties:

The Plaintiff Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation as Receiver for Progress Bank of Florida (“FDIC-R”), and Thomas R. Rummel, Jr., Laurence C. Fentriss, and Timothy A. Anonick (collectively, the “Settling Defendants”), (individually, the FDIC-R and Settling Defendants may be referred to herein as “Party,” and collectively as “Parties”).

RECITALS

WHEREAS:

Prior to October 22, 2010, Progress Bank of Florida (“Bank”) was a depository institution organized and existing under the laws of Florida.

On October 22, 2010, the Florida Office of Financial Regulation closed the Bank, and pursuant to 12 U.S.C. § 1821(c), the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation was appointed Receiver. In accordance with 12 U.S.C. § 1821(d), the FDIC-R succeeded to all rights, titles, powers and privileges of the Bank, including those with respect to its assets.

Among the assets to which the FDIC-R succeeded were all of the Bank’s claims, demands, and causes of action against its former directors and officers arising from the performance, nonperformance, and manner of performance of their respective functions, duties and acts as directors and officers of the Bank.

On October 18, 2013, the FDIC-R filed a complaint for money damages against the Settling Defendants, each of whom served at various times as a director and/or officer of the Bank.

Those claims for damages are now pending in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida in Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation as Receiver for Progress

Bank of Florida v. Rummel, et al., Case No. 8:13-CV-02692 (“D&O Action”). The Settling Defendants have denied any and all allegations of negligence, gross negligence, breach of fiduciary duty, or liability of any kind in the D&O Action.

A director and officer liability policy insured the directors and officers of the Bank according to the terms, provisions, and conditions of the Policy. The Settling Defendants asserted claims for coverage under the Policy and insurance proceeds are providing for the Settlement Payment (as defined below).

The undersigned Parties acknowledge that this is a settlement of disputed claims and defenses and deem it in their best interests to enter into this Agreement to avoid the uncertainty and expense of further litigation.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the promises, undertakings, payments, and releases stated herein, the sufficiency of which consideration is hereby acknowledged, the undersigned Parties agree, each with the other, as follows:

SECTION I: Payment to FDIC-R

A. As an essential covenant and condition to this Agreement, on or before thirty (30) calendar days following the date this Agreement is fully executed (the “Execution Date”), the sum of One Million Four Hundred and Seventy-Five Thousand and 00/100 dollars ($1,475,000.00) (“the Settlement Payment”) shall be paid by or on behalf of the Settling Defendants¹ to the FDIC-R as set forth below.

B. The Settlement Payment shall be delivered to the FDIC-R by direct wire transfer into an account designated by the FDIC-R.

¹ Due to their prior bankruptcy discharges, Anonick and Rummel were sued as nominal defendants only to the extent of their insurance coverage. The FDIC-R does not seek to hold Anonick or Rummel personally liable for the payment of the Settlement Payment.

C. If the FDIC-R does not receive the Settlement Payment in full on or before the date determined by subsection A above, then the FDIC-R, in its sole discretion, shall have the right at any time prior to receipt of the Settlement Payment in full (including all accrued interest) to:

1. Extend the period of time for the Settlement Payment, including interest accruing from the date determined by subsection A above, through the date of payment at a rate calculated in accordance with 26 U.S.C. § 6621(a)(3); or

2. Enforce this Agreement, in which event the Settling Defendants agree to jurisdiction in United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida and, only to the extent not precluded by any discharge or permanent injunction entered in any bankruptcy proceeding, to pay all of the FDIC-R's reasonable attorney's fees and costs expended in enforcing the terms of this Agreement; or

3. Terminate the Agreement, move to vacate any dismissal order, to which the Settling Defendants agree to consent, and re-institute an action on the FDIC-R's claims. The Settling Defendants further agree to waive any defense based on any statute of limitations that would bar any of the FDIC-R's claims and waive all objections, defenses, claims or counterclaims, and covenant and agree not to assert any objections, defenses, claims or counterclaims that did not exist or were otherwise unavailable as of the date this Agreement was fully executed; and/or

4. Seek any other relief available to it in law or equity.

Any extension of time under Section I.C.1 for delivery of the Settlement Payment or acceptance of a portion of the Settlement Payment shall not prejudice the FDIC-R's rights to take any of the actions set forth in Section I.C.2 through I.C.4 at any time prior to receipt of Settlement Payment (including all accrued interest) in full.

SECTION II: Stipulation and Dismissal

Within ten business days after the latter of (1) full execution of this Agreement by all of the Parties, and (2) receipt of the Settlement Payment, plus any accrued interest, the FDIC-R shall file a Joint Stipulation for Dismissal with Prejudice, executed by the attorneys for all Parties hereto, along with a proposed Order Closing Case, in the forms attached hereto as Exhibit A, in the D&O Action.

SECTION III: Releases

A. The FDIC-R's Releases.

Upon receipt of the Settlement Payment in full and except as provided in Section III.C., the FDIC-R, for itself and its successors and assigns, hereby releases and discharges the Settling Defendants and their respective heirs, executors, trustees, administrators, representatives, insurers, successors, and assigns, from any and all claims, demands, obligations, damages, actions, and causes of action, direct or indirect, in law or in equity, belonging to the FDIC-R, that arise from or relate to, the performance, nonperformance, or manner of performance of the Settling Defendants' respective functions, duties and actions as officers and/or directors of the Bank including without limitation the causes of action alleged in the D&O Action.

B. The Settling Defendants' Release.

Effective simultaneously with the release granted in Section III.A. above, the Settling Defendants, on behalf of themselves individually, and their respective heirs, executors, trustees, administrators, agents, representatives, attorneys, insurers, successors, and assigns, hereby release and discharge the FDIC-R, and its employees, officers, directors, representatives, attorneys, successors and assigns, from any and all claims, demands, obligations, damages, actions, and causes of action, direct or indirect, in law or in equity, that arise from or relate to, the Bank or to the performance, nonperformance, or manner of performance of the Settling Defendants' respective functions, duties and actions as officers and/or directors of the Bank including without limitation the causes of action alleged in the D&O Action.

C. Exceptions from Releases by FDIC-R.

1. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the FDIC-R does not release, and expressly preserves fully and to the same extent as if this Agreement had not been executed, any claims or causes of action:

a. Against the Settling Defendants or any other person or entity for liability, if any, incurred as the maker, endorser or guarantor of any promissory note or indebtedness payable or owed by them to FDIC-R, the Bank, other financial institutions, or any other person or entity, including without limitation any such claims acquired by FDIC-R as successor in interest to the Bank or any person or entity other than Bank; and

b. Against any person or entity not expressly released by the FDIC-R in this Agreement.

c. Against any person or entity with respect to losses sustained in relation to any involvement with any other financial institution, including but not limited to the Bank of the Commonwealth, or claims or causes of action asserted in the lawsuit captioned, Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation as Receiver for Bank of the Commonwealth v. Woodard et al., Case. No. 2:14-CV-00471-RGD-DEM, in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia.

2. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, nothing in this Agreement shall be construed or interpreted as limiting, waiving, releasing, or compromising the jurisdiction and authority of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation in the exercise of its supervisory or regulatory authority or to diminish its ability to institute administrative enforcement or other proceedings seeking removal, prohibition, or any other relief it is authorized to seek pursuant to its supervisory or regulatory authority against any person.

3. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, this Agreement does not purport to waive, or intend to waive, any claims that could be brought by the United States through the Department of Justice, the United States Attorney's Office for any federal judicial district, or any other department or agency of the United States as defined by 18 U.S.C. § 6. In addition, the FDIC-R specifically reserves the right to seek court-ordered restitution pursuant to the relevant provisions of the Mandatory Victims Restitution Act, 18 U.S.C. §§ 3322 and 3663 et. seq., if appropriate.

SECTION IV: Waiver of Dividends and Proceeds from Litigation

To the extent, if any, that Settling Defendants are or were shareholders of the Bank or its holding company and by virtue thereof are or may be entitled to a dividend, payment, or other distribution upon resolution of the receivership of the Bank or proceeds in any litigation that has been or could be brought against the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation in any capacity or against the United States based on or arising out of, in whole or in part, the closing of the Bank, or any alleged acts or omissions by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation in any capacity, the United States government, or any agency or department of the United States government in connection with the Bank, its conservatorship, or receivership, Settling Defendants hereby knowingly assign to the FDIC-R any and all rights, titles, and interest in and to any and all such dividends, payments, or other distributions, or proceeds.

SECTION V: Representations and Acknowledgements

A. Authorized Signatories. All of the undersigned persons represent and warrant that they are Parties hereto or are authorized to sign this Agreement on behalf of the respective Party, and that they have the full power and authority to bind such Party to each and every provision of this Agreement. Fentriss expressly acknowledges that, in determining to settle the claims released herein, the FDIC-R has reasonably and justifiably relied upon the accuracy of the Personal Financial Statement submitted by him. The FDIC-R has no obligation to independently verify the completeness or accuracy of his Personal Financial Statement.

SECTION VI: Reasonable Cooperation

The Parties agree to cooperate in good faith to effectuate all the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including doing, or causing their agents and attorneys to do, whatever is reasonably necessary to effectuate the signing, delivery, execution, filing, recording, and entry, of any documents necessary to conclude the D&O Action, and to otherwise perform the terms of this Agreement.

SECTION VII: Other Matters

A. No Admission of Liability. The undersigned Parties each acknowledge and agree that the matters set forth in this Agreement constitute the settlement and compromise of disputed claims and defenses, that this Agreement is not an admission or evidence of liability or infirmity by any of them regarding any claim or defense, and that the Agreement shall not be offered or received in evidence by or against any Party except to enforce its terms.

B. Execution in Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts by one or more of the Parties and all such counterparts when so executed shall together constitute the final Agreement, as if one document had been signed by all Parties; and each such counterpart, upon execution and delivery, shall be deemed a complete original, binding the Parties subscribed thereto upon the execution by all Parties to this Agreement.
