Subject: Legacy Loan Program Comments

Goon Morning,

We are a small company, but very interested in this program.

I would like to request that the requirements for participation in this program be kept simple and not be so restrictive that individuals and small business are left out.

I have seen (for example) FDIC packages that require the bidder to have assets in the multi-million dollar range, which prevents most of us from participating.

Please keep the requirements simple and fair to the average investor.

Sincerely,

Michael Barden
