Subject: Legacy Loans Program

Terrific!

After an abject failure of the regulators to regulate banks, Wall Street, AIG, and FNM/FRE, I think it's wonderful that government and regulators will follow that with an abject failure to protect the interests of taxpayers and the children and grandchildren of those taxpayers. Using taxpayer money to now buy toxic garbage loans is brilliant!

I salute Geithner, Obama, Paulson, Bair, Bernanke, and all the other crooks for orchestrating this massive fraud against the citizens of the United States of America, and getting away with it in broad daylight. My children will never forget you as they toil to pay taxes charged to them for your past misdeeds. Cheers!

Utterly Satisfied by the Epic Audacity of Our Government,
J. Kondis
