FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION

12 CFR Part 335

RIN 3064-AD67

Securities of Nonmember Insured Banks

AGENCY: Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

ACTION: Interim Final Rule; Request for Comment

SUMMARY: The FDIC is revising its securities disclosure regulations applicable to state nonmember banks with securities required to be registered under section 12 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act). The final rule cross references changes in regulations adopted by the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) into the provisions of the FDIC's securities regulations. Cross referencing will assure that the FDIC's regulations remain substantially similar to the SEC's regulations, as required by law. The final rule provides general references to SEC regulations by title and part of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), rather than by specific references to sections and subparts of the CFR as are currently provided in Part 335. This revision reflects changes to SEC regulations with respect to small business issuers and will provide general guidance to FDIC filers regarding the electronic filing of certain documents. The amendments to Part 335 references to SEC regulations will greatly reduce the need for future revisions of Part 335, and the FDIC's regulations will be consistent with the SEC regulations through the cross reference stated in 12 CFR 335.101.

DATES: These amendments are effective on [Insert date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER]. Comments must be submitted on or before [Insert date 60 days after date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER].

SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION:

I. Background

Section 12(i) of the Exchange Act, as amended (15 U.S.C. 78l(i)), authorizes the FDIC to issue regulations applicable to the securities of state nonmember banks that are substantially similar to those of the SEC with respect to its powers, functions, and duties to administer and enforce sections 10A(m) (standards relating to audit committees), 12 (securities registration), 13 (periodic reporting), 14(a) (proxies and proxy solicitation), 14(c) (information statements), 14(d) (tender offers), 14(f) (arrangements for changes in directors), and 16 (beneficial ownership and reporting) of the Exchange Act, and sections 302 (corporate responsibility for financial reports), 303 (improper influence on conduct of audits), 304 (forfeiture of certain bonuses and profits), 306 (insider trades during blackout periods), 401(b) (disclosure of pro forma financial information), 404 (management assessment of internal controls), 406 (code of ethics for senior financial officers), and 407 (disclosure of audit committee financial expert) of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act (codified at 15 U.S.C. 7241, 7242, 7243, 7244, 7261, 7262, 7264, and 7265). These regulations must be substantially similar to the regulations of the SEC under the listed sections of the Exchange Act and the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, unless the FDIC publishes its reasons for deviating from the SEC's rules. The proposed amendments to this part provide references to titles and parts of the CFR, and eliminate references to specific CFR sections and subparts, as a general cross reference is provided in § 335.101. The elimination of CFR section and subpart references provides efficiency as regulatory revisions by the SEC impacting CFR sections and subparts will no longer require amendments to Part 335 each time a CFR section and subpart is amended.

II. Section by Section Analysis

Part 335 will be amended throughout to reflect the elimination of certain references to sections and subparts of the Code of Federal Regulations that the FDIC is currently required to administer and enforce under section 12(i) of the Exchange Act, provide a general cross reference to the relevant title and part of the Code of Federal Regulations, and reflect required and voluntary electronic filing of FDIC forms. Accordingly, the following sections in Part 335 will be amended, where appropriate, to remove references to specific CFR sections and subparts in the SEC's regulations that have been cross referenced in section 335.101: section 335.111 (Forms and schedules), section 335.121 (Listing standards related to audit committees), section 335.201 (Securities exempted from registration), section 335.211 (Registration and reporting), section 335.221 (Forms for registration of securities and other matters), section 335.231 (Certification, suspension of trading, and removal from listing by exchanges), section 335.241 (Unlisted trading), section 335.251 (Forms for notification of action taken by national securities exchanges), section 335.261 (Exemptions; terminations; and definitions), section 335.301 (Reports of issuers of securities registered pursuant to section 12), section 335.311 (Forms for annual, quarterly, current, and other reports of issuers), section 335.321 (Maintenance of records and issuer's representations in connection with required reports), section 335.331 (Acquisition statements, acquisition of securities by issuers, and other matters), section 335.401 (Solicitation of proxies), section 335.501 (Tender offers), section 335.601 (Requirements of section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934), section 335.611 (Initial statement of beneficial ownership of securities), section 335.612 (Statement of changes in beneficial ownership of securities), section 335.613 (Annual statement of beneficial ownership of securities), section 335.701 (Filing requirements, public reference, and confidentiality), and section 335.801 (Inapplicable SEC regulations; FDIC substituted regulations; additional information).

Section 335.111 (Forms and Schedules) will be amended to provide information regarding access to and the use of beneficial ownership Forms 3, 4, and 5 from the FDIC Web site.

Section 335.221 (Forms for registration of securities and other matters) will be revised to delete paragraph (c) in order to reflect amendments to SEC regulations that eliminate the optional forms for small business issuer filing requirements. To accommodate this revision, current paragraph (d), which cross references the requirements of SEC Regulation FD (Fair Disclosure) (17 CFR 243.100 through 243.103), will be renamed paragraph (c).

Section 335.311 (Forms for annual, quarterly, current, and other reports of issuers) will be amended to delete references to “small business issuers” and optional forms for filing requirements in order to reflect amendments to SEC regulations that no longer provide optional forms for filing by small business issuers.

Section 335.601 (Requirements of section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934), section 335.701 (Filing requirements, public reference, and confidentiality), and section 335.801 (Inapplicable SEC regulations; FDIC substituted regulations; additional information) will be amended, where applicable, to reflect the electronic filing requirements with respect to Beneficial Ownership Report Forms 3, 4, and 5 required by the Exchange Act, as amended by the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. The sections also will be amended to reflect the availability of voluntary electronic filing on the FDIC Web site. In addition, section 335.801 will be amended to reflect the appropriate forms for the hardship exemption from mandatory electronic filing.

Finally, the FDIC will make certain nonsubstantive changes to Part 335 to improve its clarity and readability and to correct outdated terms.

III. Request for Comments

The FDIC requests comments on all aspects of the rule changes. Commenters suggesting that the FDIC modify the requirements of the SEC’s rules, regulations, and forms for state nonmember banks should support their request by demonstrating how such modification would satisfy the requirements of section 12(i) of the Exchange Act.

Comments are also welcome on the general organization of Part 335.

IV. Regulatory Analysis and Procedure

A. Administrative Procedure Act

The process of amending Part 335 by means of this Interim Rule is governed by the Administrative Procedure Act (APA). Pursuant to section 553(b)(B) of the APA, general notice and opportunity for public comment are not required with respect to a rulemaking when (1) the rule is interpretative or relates to an agency's rules of organization, procedure, or practice, and (2) an agency for good cause finds that "notice and public procedure thereon are impracticable, unnecessary, or contrary to the public interest." Similarly, sections 553(d)(2), (3) of the APA provide that the publication of a rule shall be made not less than 30 days before its effective date, except if the rule is interpretative and "as otherwise provided by the agency for good cause found and published with the rule."

Consistent with sections 553(b)(A), (B) of the APA, the FDIC finds that good cause exists for a finding that general notice and opportunity for public comment are unnecessary in that certain portions of Part 335 that are being amended in light of the issuance of regulations by the SEC, which SEC issuances already have been subjected to public notice and request for comment. In addition, certain other changes to Part 335 are organizational in nature and are exempt from the APA's general notice and public comment requirement. Accordingly, pursuant to the APA, the FDIC is foregoing the general notice and public comment requirement as to this rulemaking.

Further, immediate issuance of this Interim Rule furthers the public interest by conforming the FDIC's rules with the SEC's requirements and organizing the rule to reduce redundancies and increase readability.. For these same reasons, the FDIC finds good cause to publish this Interim Rule with an immediate effective date.¹

Although general notice and opportunity for public comment are not required prior to the effective date, the FDIC invites comments on all aspects of the Interim Rule, which the FDIC may revise if necessary or appropriate in light of the comments received.

B. Riegle Community Development and Regulatory Improvement Act

The Riegle Community Development and Regulatory Improvement Act provides that any new regulations or amendments to regulations prescribed by a Federal banking agency that impose additional reporting, disclosures, or other new requirements on insured depository institutions shall take effect on the first day of a calendar quarter which begins on or after the date on which the regulations are published in final form, unless the agency determines, for good cause published with the rule, that the rule should become effective before such time.² For the same reasons discussed above, the FDIC finds that good cause exists for an immediate effective date for the Interim Rule.

C. Paperwork Reduction Act

This rule contains no new collections of information as defined by the Paperwork Reduction Act.

D. Regulatory Flexibility Act

A regulatory flexibility analysis is required only when the agency must publish a notice of proposed rulemaking (5 U.S.C. 603, 604). Because the revisions to Part 335 are published in interim final form without a notice of proposed rulemaking, no regulatory flexibility analysis is required.

E. Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act

The Office of Management and Budget (OMB) has yet to issue its determination as to whether the Interim Rule is a "major rule" within the meaning of the relevant sections of the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Act of 1996 (SBREFA), 5 U.S.C. § 801 et seq. As required by SBREFA, the FDIC will file the appropriate reports with Congress and the Government Accountability Office as soon as it receives a determination from OMB. Nevertheless, as discussed above, consistent with section 553(b)(B) of the APA, the FDIC has determined for good cause that general notice and opportunity for public comment is unnecessary. Therefore, in accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 808(2), this Interim Rule will take effect upon publication in the Federal Register.

(6) The confidential portion shall be made available to the public:

(i) Upon the lapse of 15 days after the dispatch of notice by registered or certified mail of the finding and determination of the FDIC described in paragraph (c)(5) of this section, or the date of the electronic filing, if prior to the lapse of such 15 days the person shall not have filed a written statement that he intends in good faith to seek judicial review of the finding and determination;

(2) All reporting persons must electronically file Beneficial Ownership Reports (FDIC Forms 3, 4, and 5), including amendments and exhibits thereto, using the Internet-based interagency Beneficial Ownership Filings System, except that a reporting person that has obtained a continuing hardship exemption under these rules may file the forms with the FDIC in paper format. For electronic filing purposes, FDIC Forms 3, 4, and 5 are accessible at the Internet-based interagency Web site for Beneficial Ownership Filings at FDICconnect at <https://www2.fdicconnect.gov/index.asp>. (iv) Where a continuing hardship exemption is granted with respect to an exhibit only, the paper format exhibit shall be filed with the FDIC under Form SE (17 CFR part 249).

The name of the FDIC shall be substituted for the name of the SEC on the form. Form SE shall be filed as a paper cover sheet to all exhibits to Beneficial Ownership Reports submitted to the FDIC in paper form pursuant to a hardship exemption.
