Frequency of Response: On occasion and one-time reporting requirements; Third party disclosure requirement.

Total Annual Burden: 80,184 burden hours.

Total Annual Cost: $160,000.

Obligation to Respond: Required to obtain or retain benefits.

Nature and Extent of Confidentiality: Confidentiality is an issue to the extent that individuals and households provide personally identifiable information, which is covered under the FCC’s system of records notice (SORN), FCC/CGB–1, “Informal Complaints and Inquiries.”

Needs and Uses: The information collection requirements included under this OMB Control Number 3060–0833 govern the filing of complaints with the Commission as part of the implementation of section 255 of the Telecommunications Act of 1996, which seeks to ensure that telecommunications equipment and services are available to all Americans, including those individuals with disabilities. As with any complaint procedure, a certain number of regulatory and information burdens are necessary to ensure compliance with FCC rules. The information collection requirements also give full effect to the accessibility policies embodied in section 255, by requiring telecommunications equipment manufacturers and service providers to make end-user product documentation available in alternate formats, including providing contact information to request such documentation, and by requiring them to demonstrate how they considered accessibility during product development, when no other affirmative defenses to a complaint are pertinent.

Proposal To Approve Under OMB Delegated Authority the Extension for Three Years, Without Revision, of the Following Reports

Agency form number: FR 4100. OMB control number: 7100–0309. Frequency: Develop customer notice, one-time; Update and maintain customer notice, annually; Incident notification, event-generated.

Reporters: Financial institutions. Annual reporting hours: 62,135. Estimated average hours per response: Develop customer notice, 24; Update and maintain customer notice, 8; Incident notification, 29.

Number of respondents: Develop customer notice, 102; Update and maintain customer notice, 6,957; Incident notification, 139.

General description of report: This information collection is mandatory (15 U.S.C. 6801(b)). Since the Federal Reserve does not collect information associated with the FR 4100, any issue of confidentiality would not generally be an issue. However, confidentiality may arise if the Federal Reserve were to obtain a copy of a customer notice during the course of an examination or were to receive a copy of a Suspicious Activity Report (SAR; FR 2230; OMB No. 7100–0212). In such cases the information would be exempt from disclosure to the public under the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552(b)(3), (4), and (b))). Also, a federal employee is prohibited by law from disclosing an SAR or the existence of an SAR (31 U.S.C. 5318(g)).

Abstract: Recent trends in customer information theft and the accompanying misuse of that information have led to the issuance of a supplemental interpretation of existing information technology-related security guidelines applicable to financial institutions. The supplemental guidelines are designed to facilitate timely and relevant notification of affected customers and the appropriate regulatory authority of the financial institutions. The guidelines provide specific direction regarding the nature and content of customer notice.
