

Kathryn Metzker
Risk Officer
National Credit Union Administration

Kathryn Metzker is a Risk Officer at the National Credit Union Administration (NCUA). Kathryn began her career at NCUA in 1999 as an examiner in New York and then served as a problem case officer for several years. Kathryn came to NCUA's division of Examination and Insurance in 2015, where she works on various capital related projects including the Risk Based Capital rule and Subordinated Debt implications, in addition to other risk management duties.