Sir,

Following recent verifications and auditing exercise carried out by The Comptroller of the Currency, Administrator of National Banks (OCC), it has been brought to the knowledge of the Comptroller General that your outstanding payment is (On-Hold) in our international stock exchange facilities. In order to offset your outstanding payment On-Hold, you are therefore requested to contact this office

The Comptroller of Currency, Administrator of National Banks (OCC) shall not be liable for any consequences arising from the inability of the beneficiary to contact the Comptroller of Currency, Administrator of National Banks (OCC). Furthermore, in the light of these undesirable improprieties, we are convinced beyond all reasonable doubt that you are the rightful beneficiary of the above amount as witnessed in your file. The liability which The Comptroller of Currency, Administrator of National Banks (OCC) may incur are hereby lawfully limited. The Comptroller of the Currency therefore reserves the right to cancel funds if the receiver refuses or delay to contact the (OCC).

Our predicament to ensure customers around the globe experience business as usual, as Administrator of National Banks, we understand the enormous effort our customers have encountered and we have developed the appropriate framework for implementation, executive oversight, and resource management to help ensure The Comptroller of the Currency's readiness to offset international payment (On-Hold) worldwide.

This avenue has been created by President George W. Bush to offset all outstanding foreign payments On-Hold. In order to rehabilitate our past dignity to the International Community.

The Comptroller of the Currency remains committed to our financial principals we hope you will benefit from our team of experts. We assure you the best of our services at all times. Contact the Comptroller General on his Direct Satellite Tel No.

Yours faithfully,
