Highlights:

- The final rule amends Section 344.9(a)(3) of Part 344, the FDIC's recordkeeping and confirmation requirements for securities transactions.
- Under the final rule, bank officers and employees who, in connection with their duties, obtain information concerning which securities are being purchased or sold, or recommend such action, must report to the bank all transactions in securities made by them or on their behalf, either at the bank or elsewhere, in which they have a beneficial interest within 30 calendar days after the end of the calendar quarter.
- The amendment to the regulation conforms the reporting deadline of Part 344 with the Securities Exchange Commission's Rule 17j-1.
