E	Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act (UDAP)
----------	---

542501	Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act prohibits unfair acts or practices. An act or practice is unfair where it (1) causes or is likely to cause substantial injury to consumers, (2) cannot be reasonably avoided by consumers, and (3) is not outweighed by countervailing benefits to consumers or to competition. Public policy may also be considered in the analysis of whether a particular act or practice is unfair. [542501]
542801	Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act prohibits deceptive acts or practices. To determine whether a representation, omission, or practice is “deceptive,” a three-part test is used. First, the representation, omission, or practice must mislead or be likely to mislead the consumer. Second, the consumer’s interpretation of the representation, omission, or practice must be reasonable under the circumstances. Lastly, the misleading representation, omission, or practice must be material. [542801]

297195	Section 1005.33(c)(2)(ii) of Regulation E requires the remittance transfer provider that determines an error occurred to correct the error within one business day or as soon as reasonably practicable by, in the case of an error under paragraph (a)(1)(iv) of this section: (A) either: (1) refunding the amount of funds provided by the sender or the amount appropriate to resolve the error; or (2) making available to the designated recipient the amount appropriate to resolve the error; and (B) refunding the sender any fees and taxes collected on the remittance transfer. [297195]	297215	Section 1005.33(g)(1) of Regulation E requires the remittance transfer provider to develop and maintain written policies and procedures to ensure compliance with the error resolution requirements of this section. [297215]
		297220	Section 1005.33(g)(2) of Regulation E requires that the remittance transfer provider's policies and procedures include policies and procedures regarding the retention of documentation related to error investigations. Such policies and procedures must ensure, at a minimum, the retention of any error notices submitted by the sender, documentation provided by the sender to the provider with respect to the alleged error, and the findings of the remittance transfer provider regarding the investigation of the alleged error. [297220]
		297230	Section 1005.34(a) of Regulation E requires the remittance transfer provider to comply with the requirements of this section with respect to any oral or written request to cancel a remittance transfer from the sender that is received by the provider no later than 30 minutes after the sender makes payment in connection with the remittance transfer if: (1) the request enables the provider to identify the sender's name and address or telephone number and the particular transfer to be cancelled; and (2) the transferred funds have not been picked up by the designated recipient or deposited into an account of the designated recipient. [297230]
297201	Section 1005.33(c)(2)(iii) of Regulation E requires the remittance transfer provider that determines an error occurred because the sender provided incorrect or insufficient information in connection with the remittance transfer to provide the remedies required by paragraphs (c)(2)(ii)(A)(1) and (B) within three business days of providing the report required by paragraph (c)(1) or (d)(1) of this section except upon the sender's request that funds be applied towards a new remittance transfer rather than refunded if the provider has not yet processed a refund. [297201]
		297235	Section 1005.34(b) of Regulation E requires the remittance transfer provider to provide a refund, at no additional cost to the sender, within three business days of receiving a sender's request to cancel. The refund should consist of the total amount of funds provided by the sender including any fees, and to the extent not prohibited by law, taxes that were imposed. [297235]
297205	Section 1005.33(d)(1) of Regulation E requires the remittance transfer provider's report of investigation to include a written explanation of the provider's findings and shall note the sender's right to request the documents the provider relied on in making its determination. 111334	Section 615(g) of the Fair Credit Reporting Act requires that if a person acting as a debt collector on behalf of a third party that is a creditor or other user of a consumer report is notified that any information relating to a debt that the person is attempting to collect may be fraudulent or may be the result of identity theft, that person shall: (1) Notify the third party that the information may be fraudulent or may be the result of identity theft; and (2) Upon request of the consumer to whom the debt purportedly relates, provide to the consumer all information to which the consumer would otherwise be entitled if the consumer were not a victim of identity theft, but wished to dispute the debt under provisions of law applicable to that person. [111334]	113001	Section 623(a)(7) of the Fair Credit Reporting Act requires financial institutions that extend credit and regularly and in the ordinary course of business furnish information to nationwide consumer reporting agencies, to provide a notice to customers in writing, when negative information about the customer is provided to the nationwide consumer reporting agency. This notice must be provided before negative information is furnished, or within 30 days after furnishing the negative information. After the notice is provided, a financial institution may submit additional negative information to a nationwide consumer reporting agency with respect to the same transaction, extension of credit, account, or customer without providing additional notice to the customer. [113001]
111901	Section 615(b) of the Fair Credit Reporting Act requires, when credit is denied or the cost increased based on third-party information, that the creditor inform the customer of his/her right to know the nature of the information. [111901]
112201	Section 623(a) of the Fair Credit Reporting Act requires furnishers of information to consumer reporting agencies to provide accurate information relating to the consumer and to follow certain procedures set forth in this section of the Act to correct and update such information. [112201]	113201	Section 1022.72(a) of Regulation V requires a person to provide a risk-based pricing notice in the form and manner described in this subpart. The notice shall be provided to a consumer when: (1) A consumer report is used in connection with an application for, or a grant, extension, or other provision of credit to a consumer that is primarily for personal, family, or household purposes; and

[113201]		cutoff score(s) generally must be calculated within one year for a person using proxy methods that rely on market research, third-party data, or information from a portfolio from which the person acquired. [113222]
113210	Section 1022.72(b)(1)(i) of Regulation V states that a person may comply with the requirements of paragraph (a) of this section by: (A)determining the cutoff credit score that represents the point at which approximately 40 percent of the consumers to whom it grants, extends, or provides credit have higher scores and approximately 60 percent of the consumers to whom it grants, extends, or provides credit have lower credit scores; and (B)providing a risk-based pricing notice to each consumer to whom it grants, extends, or provides credit whose credit score is lower than the cutoff score. [113210]	113223	Section 1022.72(b)(1)(iii)(D) of Regulation V requires a person that generally uses two or more credit scores in setting the material terms of credit granted, extended, or provided to a consumer, to determine the cutoff score using the same method the person uses to evaluate multiple scores when making credit decisions. If the person does not consistently use the same method for evaluating multiple scores, the person must determine the cutoff using a reasonable means. [113223]
113215	Section 1022.72(b)(1)(ii) of Regulation V states that, in the case of credit that has been granted, extended, or provided on the most favorable material terms to more than 40 percent of consumers, a person may set its cutoff score at a point at which the approximate percentage of consumers who historically have been granted, extended, or provided credit on material terms other than the most favorable terms would receive risk-based pricing notices under this section. [113215]	113225	Section 1022.72(b)(1)(iv) of Regulation V requires a person using the credit score proxy method who provides credit to a consumer for whom a credit score is not available, assume that the consumer receives credit on material terms that are materially less favorable than the most favorable credit terms offered to a substantial proportion of consumers and must provide a risk-based pricing notice to the consumer. [113225]
113220	Section 1022.72(b)(1)(iii)(A) of Regulation V requires that a person currently using risk-based pricing with respect to the credit products it offers to calculate the cutoff score by considering the credit scores of all or a representative sample of the consumers to whom it has granted, extended, or provided credit for a specific type of credit product. [113220]	113230	Section 1022.72(b)(2) of Regulation V states that a person that sets the material terms of credit that is granted, extended, or provided to a consumer by placing the consumer within one of a discrete number of pricing tiers for a specific type of credit product, based in whole or in part on a consumer report, may comply with the requirements of paragraph (a) of this section by providing a risk-based pricing notice to each consumer who is not placed within the top pricing tier or tiers, as described in paragraph (b)(2)(ii) or (b)(2)(iii). [113230]
113222	Section 1022.72(b)(1)(iii)(C) of Regulation V requires a person using the credit score proxy method to calculate its cutoff score(s) no less than every two years in the manner described in paragraph (b)(1)(iii)(A) of this section. The	113235	Section 1022.72(c) of Regulation V states that a credit card issuer subject to the requirements of paragraph (a) of this section may use the case-by-case method, credit score proxy method, or tiered pricing method to identify consumers to whom it must provide a risk-based pricing notice. Alternatively, a credit card issuer may satisfy its obligation under paragraph (a) of this section by providing a

113240	Section 1022.72(d) of Regulation V states that a person is generally subject to the requirements of paragraph (a) of this section and must provide a risk-based pricing notice to a consumer in the form and manner required by this subpart if the person uses a consumer report in connection with a review of credit that has been extended to the consumer; and based in whole or in part on the consumer report, the annual percentage rate is increased. [113240]	113275	Section 1022.73(c)(3) of Regulation V requires that the risk based pricing notice be provided in the timeframes set forth in paragraph (c)(3)(i) or (c)(2)(ii) of this subpart when credit under an open-end credit plan is granted, extended, or provided to a consumer in person or by telephone for the purpose of financing the contemporaneous purchase of goods or services. [113275]
113250	Section 1022.73(a)(1) of Regulation V requires the risk-based pricing notice required by section 1022.72(a) or section 1022.72(c) to include the information specified in paragraphs (a)(1)(i) through (a)(1)(ix) of this subpart. [113250]	113280	Section 1022.75(a) of Regulation V requires that a risk-based pricing notice be provided when the conditions set forth in section 1022.72(d) have been met, even if a consumer has previously received a risk-based pricing notice in connection with a grant, extension, or other provision of credit. [113280]
113255	Section 1022.73(a)(2) of Regulation V requires the risk-based pricing notice required by section 1022.72(d) to include the information specified in paragraphs (a)(2)(i) through (a)(2)(ix) of this subpart. [113255]	113285	Section 1022.75(b) of Regulation V requires the person to whom a credit obligation is initially payable provide the risk-based pricing notice described in § 1022.74(a) or (c) , or satisfy the requirements for and provide the notice required under one of the exceptions in § 1022.74(d), (e), or (f) even if that person immediately assigns the credit agreement to a third party and is not the source of funding for the credit. [113285]
113260	Section 1022.73(b) of Regulation V requires that the risk-based pricing notice required by § 1022.72(a), (c), or (d) to be clear and conspicuous and provided to the consumer in oral, written, or electronic form. [113260]	113290	Section 1022.75(c)(1) of Regulation V requires a person to provide a risk-based pricing notice to each consumer in a transaction involving two or more consumers who are granted, extended, or otherwise provided credit in order to satisfy the requirements of section 1022.72(a) or (c). If the consumers have the same address, a person may satisfy the requirements by providing a single notice addressed to both consumers. [113290]
113265	Section 1022.73(c)(1) of Regulation V requires that a risk-based pricing notice be provided to a consumer in accordance with the timeframes set forth in paragraph (c)(1)(i), (c)(1)(ii), or (c)(1)(iii) of this subpart, as applicable. [113265]	113295	Section 1022.75(c)(2) of Regulation V requires a person to provide a credit score notice disclosure to each consumer in a transaction involving two or more consumers who are granted, extended, or otherwise provided credit, to satisfy the exceptions in section 1022.74(d), (e), or (f). 113401	Section 1022.21(a)(1) of Regulation V prohibits a financial institution from using eligibility information about a consumer that the institution receives from an affiliate to make a solicitation for marketing purposes to the consumer unless: (1) It is clearly and conspicuously disclosed to the consumer in writing or, if the consumer agrees, electronically, in a concise notice that the institution may use eligibility information about that consumer received from an affiliate to make solicitations for marketing purposes to the consumer; (2) The consumer is provided a reasonable opportunity and a reasonable and simple method to “opt out,” or prohibit the institution from using eligibility information to make solicitations for marketing purposes to the consumer; and (3) The consumer has not opted out. [113401]	114001	Section 1022.23(a)(1) of Regulation V requires that a notice be clear, conspicuous, and concise, and accurately disclose all of the elements under (i) through (vii) of this section of the regulation. [114001]
		114002	Section 1022.23(a)(2) of Regulation V requires that if two or more consumers jointly obtain a product or service: (1) The opt-out notice must explain how an opt-out direction by a joint consumer will be treated; (2) If each joint consumer is permitted to opt out separately, one of the joint consumers must be permitted to opt out on behalf of all joint consumers and the joint consumers must be permitted to exercise their separate rights to opt out in a single response; (3) It is impermissible to require all joint consumers to opt out before implementing any opt-out direction. [114002]
113402	Section 1022.21(a)(3) of Regulation V requires that the affiliate marketing notice be provided: (1) By an affiliate that has or has previously had a pre-existing business relationship with the consumer; or (2) As part of a joint notice from two or more members of an affiliated group of companies, provided that at least one of the affiliates on the joint notice has or has previously had a pre-existing business relationship with the consumer. [113402]	114201	Section 1022.26(a) of Regulation V requires the opt-out notice be provided so that each consumer can reasonably be expected to receive actual notice. [114201]
113601	Section 1022.22(a)(5) of Regulation V requires that a consumer be given a new opt-out notice if, after all continuing relationships with the financial institution or its affiliate(s) are terminated, the consumer subsequently establishes another continuing relationship with the financial institution or its affiliate(s) and the consumer’s eligibility information is to be used to make a solicitation. The new opt-out notice must apply, at a minimum, to eligibility information obtained in connection with the new continuing relationship. [113601]	114401	Section 1022.27(a)(1) of Regulation V prohibits, after the opt-out period expires, a financial institution from making solicitations based on eligibility information the financial institution receives from an affiliate to a consumer who previously opted out, unless: (1) The consumer has been given a renewal notice that complies with the requirements of this section of the regulation and Sections 1022.24 through 1022.26, and a reasonable opportunity and a reasonable and simple method to renew the opt-out, and the consumer does not renew the opt-out; or (2) An exception in Section 1022.21(c) applies. [114403]	115101	Section 1022.43(a) of Regulation V requires a financial institution that meets the definition of "furnisher" in the regulation and that receives a direct dispute from a consumer pursuant to paragraphs (c) and (d) of this section, to conduct a reasonable investigation of a direct dispute if it relates to one of the four items below, unless specifically exempted by (b) of this part: (1) the consumer's liability for a credit account or other debt with the furnisher; (2) the terms of a credit account or other debt with the furnisher; (3) the consumer's performance or other conduct concerning an account or other relationship with the furnisher; or (4) any other information contained in a consumer report regarding an account or other relationship with the furnisher that bears on the consumer's creditworthiness, credit standing, credit capacity, character, general reputation, personal characteristics, or mode of living. [115101]
114601	Section 1022.27(b) of Regulation V requires that the renewal notice be clear, conspicuous, and concise, and accurately disclose all of the elements under (1) through (8) of this section of the regulation. [114601]
114710	Section 1022.30(b) of Regulation V prohibits a creditor from obtaining or using medical information pertaining to a consumer in connection with any determination of the consumer's eligibility or continued eligibility for credit, except as provided in this section. [114710]	115105	Section 1022.43(e) of Regulation V requires a financial institution that meets the definition of "furnisher" in the regulation and that received a direct dispute from a consumer pursuant to paragraphs (c) and (d) of this section to: (1) conduct a reasonable investigation with respect to the disputed information; (2) review all relevant information provided by the consumer with the dispute notice; (3) complete its investigation of the dispute and report the results to the consumer before the expiration of the period under section 611(a)(1) of the Fair Credit Reporting Act within which a consumer reporting agency would be required to complete its action if the consumer had elected to dispute the information under that section; and (4) if the investigation finds that the information reported was inaccurate, promptly notify each consumer reporting agency to which the furnisher provided inaccurate information of that determination and provide any correction to make the information accurate. [115105]
114750	Section 1022.31 of Regulation V prohibits a person, as described in paragraph (a) of this section, from disclosing medical information about a consumer, received from a consumer reporting agency or its affiliate, to any other person, except as necessary to carry out the purpose for which the information was initially disclosed, or as otherwise permitted by statute, regulation, or order. [114750]
115001	Section 1022.42 of Regulation V requires a financial institution that meets the definition of "furnisher" in the regulation to establish and implement reasonable written policies and procedures regarding the accuracy and integrity of the information relating to consumers that it furnishes to a consumer reporting agency. Each furnisher must consider the guidelines in Appendix E of this part in developing its policies and procedures, and periodically review the policies and procedures and update them as necessary to ensure their continued effectiveness. [115001]	115106	Section 1022.43(f) of Regulation V requires a financial institution that meets the definition of "furnisher" in the regulation and that receives a frivolous or irrelevant dispute, to notify the consumer of this determination not later than

117001 Section 1022.82(c) of Regulation V requires a user of consumer reports to develop and implement reasonable policies and procedures designed to enable the user to form a reasonable belief that a consumer report relates to the consumer about whom it has requested the report when the user receives a notice of address discrepancy. [117001]

117101 Section 1022.82(d)(1) of Regulation V requires a user to develop and implement reasonable policies and procedures for furnishing an address for the consumer that the user has reasonably confirmed is accurate to the consumer reporting agency from whom it received the notice of address discrepancy when the user: (i) can form a reasonable belief that the consumer report relates to the consumer; (ii) establishes a continuing relationship with the consumer; and (iii) regularly and in the ordinary course of business furnishes information to the consumer reporting agency from which the notice of address discrepancy was obtained. [117101]

117201 Section 1022.82(d)(3) of Regulation V requires that the user furnish the consumer's address that the user has reasonably confirmed is accurate to the consumer reporting agency as part of the information it regularly furnishes for the reporting period in which it establishes a relationship with the consumer. 760501	Section 232.5(a)(1) of Department of Defense regulations requires a nonexempt financial institution to provide each applicant prior to becoming obligated on the covered transaction, a clear and conspicuous “covered borrower identification statement.” In addition, each applicant is required to sign the statement indicating either they are or are not a covered borrower. [760501]
760601	Section 232.6(a) of the Department of Defense regulations requires a creditor to provide the member or dependent the following information clearly and conspicuously before consummation of the consumer credit transaction: (1) The MAPR and the total dollar amount of all charges included in the MAPR; (2) Any disclosures required by Regulation Z; (3) A clear description of the payment obligation of the covered borrower; and (4) A statement that says in part, "Federal law provides important protections to regular or reserve members of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Air Force, or Coast Guard, serving on active duty under a call or order that does not specify a period of 30 days or fewer, and their dependents." [760601]
760701	Section 232.6(b)(1) of the Department of Defense regulations requires that the creditor provide the disclosures required by this part in writing in a form the covered borrower can keep. [760701]
760702	Section 232.6(b)(2) of the Department of Defense regulations requires that the creditor provide the disclosures required by this part orally before consummation. [760702]
760901	Section 232.8(a) of the Department of Defense regulations makes it unlawful for any creditor to extend consumer credit to a covered borrower when: (1) The creditor rolls over, renews, repays, refinances, or consolidates any consumer credit extended to the covered borrower by the same creditor with the proceeds of other consumer credit extended by that creditor to the same borrower, unless the new transaction results in more favorable terms to the covered borrower, such as a lower MAPR; (2) The covered borrower is required

130304	Section 1024.7(a)(4) of Regulation X of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau prohibits a financial institution from charging, as a condition for providing a good faith estimate for a federally related mortgage loan, any fee for an appraisal, inspection, or other similar settlement service. The lender may, at its option, charge a fee limited to the cost of a credit report, but may not charge additional fees until after the applicant has indicated an intention to proceed with the loan covered by the good faith estimate received by the applicant borrower from the lender. [130304]	130901	Section 1024.7(d) of Regulation X of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau requires financial institutions to use the good faith form set forth in Appendix C. The loan originator must prepare the form in accordance with the requirements of this section and the Instructions in Appendix C. [130901]
130305	Section 1024.7(a)(5) of Regulation X of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau prohibits a financial institution from requiring, as a condition for providing the good faith estimate that an applicant submits supplemental documentation to verify the information provided on the application. [130305]	131201	Section 1024.7(e)(1) of Regulation X of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau prohibits the actual charges at settlement from exceeding the amounts on the good faith estimate for: 1) the origination charge; 2) the credit or charge for the interest rate chosen while the borrower's interest rate is locked; 3) the adjusted origination charge while the borrower's interest rate is locked; and 4) transfer taxes. [131201]
130404	Section 1024.7(b)(4) of Regulation X of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau prohibits a mortgage broker from charging, as a condition for providing a good faith estimate for a federally related mortgage loan, any fee for an appraisal, inspection, or other similar settlement service. The mortgage broker may charge a credit report fee, but may not charge additional fees until after the applicant has indicated an intention to proceed with the loan covered by the good faith estimate received by the applicant borrower from the mortgage broker. [130404]	131202	Section 1024.7(e)(2) of Regulation X of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau prohibits the sum of the charges at settlement for the following services to exceed 10 percent above the sum of the amounts included on the good faith estimate: 1) lender required settlement services where the lender selects the third party settlement service provider; 2) lender-required settlement services, title services and required title insurance, and owner's title insurance, when the borrower uses a settlement service provider identified by the loan originator; and 3) government recording charges. If a financial institution provides a revised good faith estimate, then the loan originator must retain documentation of any reasons for providing a revised good faith estimate for no less than 3 years after settlement. [131301]	131340	Section 1024.7(i) of Regulation X of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau states that a loan originator shall be deemed to have violated section 5 of RESPA if any charges at settlement exceed the charges listed on the good faith estimate by more than the permitted tolerances, and the loan originator has not cured the tolerance violation by reimbursing the borrower the amount by which the tolerance was exceeded, at settlement or within 30 calendar days after settlement. A borrower will be deemed to have received timely reimbursement if the loan originator delivers or places the payment in the mail within 30 calendar days after settlement. [131340]
131303	Section 1024.7(f)(1) of Regulation X of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau requires a financial institution that provides a revised good faith estimate due to changed circumstances affecting settlement costs, changed circumstances affecting loan, or borrower-requested changes, to provide the revised good faith estimate within 3 business days of receiving the information sufficient to establish changed circumstances or the borrower's request. [131303]	132101	Section 1024.8(a) of Regulation X of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau requires that the settlement agent shall use the HUD-1 settlement statement in every settlement involving a federally-related mortgage loan unless specifically exempted. The HUD-1A form may be used for transactions in which there is a borrower and no seller, such as refinancing loans and subordinate lien loans. [132101]
131306	Section 1024.7(f)(5) of Regulation X of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau prohibits changes to the charges and terms on the original good faith estimate, except as provided in paragraph (f) of this section, unless a borrower has not locked in the interest rate, or a locked interest rate has expired. In these cases, the institution may adjust the charge or credit for the interest rate chosen, the adjusted origination charges, per diem interest, and loan terms related to the interest rate. If the borrower later locks the interest rate, a revised good faith estimate must be provided showing the revised interest rate-dependent charges and terms. [131306]	132401	Section 1024.8(b) of Regulation X of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau requires the settlement agent to complete the HUD-1 or HUD-1A in accordance with the instruction set forth in Appendix A. The loan originator must transmit to the settlement agent all information necessary to complete the HUD-1 or HUD-1A. [132401]
131307	Section 1024.7(f)(6) of Regulation X of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau permits a financial institution that anticipates settlement on a new construction home purchase to occur more than 60 calendar days from the time a good faith estimate is provided to clearly and conspicuously disclose that any time up until 60 calendar days prior to closing, the loan originator may issue a revised good faith estimate. If no such separate disclosure is provided, the loan originator can not issue a revised good faith estimate, except as provided in paragraph (f) of this section. [131307]	132402	Section 1024.8(b)(1) of Regulation X of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau requires the settlement agent to state the actual charges paid by the borrower and seller on the HUD-1, or by the borrower on the HUD-1A. The settlement agent must separately itemize each third party charge paid by the borrower and seller. All origination services performed by or on behalf of the loan originator must be included in the loan originator's own charge. Administrative and processing services related to title services must be included in the title underwriter's or title agent's own charge. The amount stated on the HUD-1 or HUD-1A for

The person reproducing the HUD-1 may insert its business name and logo and may rearrange the other information that appears in Section A. [132601]
132404	Section 1024.8(b)(2)(i) of Regulation X of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau requires that if a financial institution uses an average charge on the HUD-1 or HUD-1A, such charge shall be no more than the average amount paid for a settlement service by one settlement service provider to another settlement service provider on behalf of borrowers and sellers for a particular class of transactions involving federally related mortgage loans. The total amounts paid by borrowers and sellers for a settlement service based on the use of an average charge may not exceed the total amounts paid to the providers of that service for the particular class of transaction. [132404]	132701	Section 1024.10(a) of Regulation X of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau requires the settlement agent to provide the HUD-1 or HUD-1A to the borrower for inspection, upon request, during the business day immediately preceding the day of settlement. [132701]
132405	Section 1024.8(b)(2)(iv) of Regulation X of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau prohibits the use of an average charge for any settlement service if the charge for the service is based on the loan amount or property value. [132405]	133001	Section 1024.10(b), (c) and (d) of Regulation X of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau requires the settlement agent to provide the HUD-1 or HUD-1A to the borrower and the seller, and/or their agents at or before settlement, unless waived by the borrower. [133001]
132409	Section 1024.8(b)(2)(v) of Regulation X of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau requires the settlement service provider to retain all documentation used to calculate the average charge for a particular class of transactions for at least 3 years after any settlement for which that average charge was used. [132409]	133301	Section 1024.10(e) of Regulation X of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau requires retention of the HUD-1 or HUD-1A settlement statement and related documents for five years after the date of settlement unless the lender disposes of its interest in the mortgage and does not service the mortgage. [133301]
132501	Section 1024.8(c) of Regulation X of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau states that a violation of any of the requirements of this section will be deemed to be a violation of section 4 of RESPA. An inadvertent or technical error in completing the HUD-1 or HUD-1A shall not be deemed a violation of section 4 of RESPA if a revised HUD-1 or HUD-1A is provided in accordance with the requirements of this section within 30 calendar days after settlement. [132501]	133601	Section 1024.12 of Regulation X of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau prohibits the imposition of a fee for the preparation of the HUD-1 or the HUD-1A settlement statements, escrow account statements required pursuant to Section 10 of RESPA, or Truth in Lending disclosure statement. [133601]

149115	Section 1024.35(c) of Regulation X requires a servicer, who designates a specific address for receiving notices of error, to provide a written notice to a borrower of the address, including a statement that the borrower must use the specified address to assert an error. The servicer must designate the same address for receiving information requests pursuant to § 1024.36(b). If the servicer changes the designated address, the servicer must provide advance written notice. A servicer that maintains a Web site with any contact addresses must post the designated address on the Web site. [149115]
149120	Section 1024.35(d) of Regulation X requires a servicer to provide to the borrower a written response acknowledging receipt of the notice of error within five days (excluding legal public holidays, Saturdays, and Sundays) after receiving the error notice. [149120]
149130	Section 1024.35(e)(1) of Regulation X requires a servicer to conduct a reasonable investigation of a notice of error and to provide a written notice that correction has occurred, that no error occurred, or that a different or additional error(s) occurred. This section further requires the servicer's notice to include, as appropriate, the effective date of the correction, a description of any additional errors identified, the action taken to correct the errors, a statement of the reason or reasons for the determination of no errors, a statement of the borrower's right to request documents relied upon by the servicer in reaching its determination of no errors, information regarding how the borrower can request such documents, and contact information, including a telephone number, for further assistance. [149130]
149135	Section 1024.35(e)(2) of Regulation X permits a servicer to request supporting documentation from a borrower in connection with the investigation of an asserted error, but the servicer may not: (i) Require a borrower to provide such information as a condition of investigating an asserted error; or (ii) Determine that no error occurred because the borrower failed to provide any requested information without conducting a reasonable investigation. [149135]

149140	Section 1024.35(e)(3) of Regulation X states that a servicer generally has 30 days (excluding legal public holidays, Saturdays, and Sundays) from receipt of the error notice to investigate and respond to the notice, except that a servicer may extend this period by an additional 15 days (excluding legal public holidays, Saturdays, and Sundays) if, prior to the expiration of the original 30-day period, it notifies the borrower in writing of the extension and the reasons for it. [149140]
149145	Section 1024.35(e)(3)(i) of Regulation X states that: (A) a servicer must respond within seven days (excluding legal public holidays, Saturdays, and Sundays) if the alleged error is a failure to provide an accurate payoff balance amount, and (B) a servicer must respond by the earlier of 30 days (excluding legal public holidays, Saturdays, and Sundays) or the date of a foreclosure sale if the error involves either (i) making the first notice or filing for a judicial or non-judicial foreclosure process before the time periods allowed by Section 1024.41(f) or (j), or (ii) moving for foreclosure judgment or order of sale or conducting a foreclosure sale in violation of Section 1024.41(g) or (j). [149145]
149150	Section 1024.35(e)(4) of Regulation X requires a servicer to provide to the borrower, at no charge, copies of documents and information relied upon by the servicer in making its determination that no error occurred within 15 days (excluding legal public holidays, Saturdays, and Sundays) of receiving the borrower's request for such documents. If a servicer withholds documents relied upon because it has determined that such documents constitute confidential, proprietary or privileged information, the servicer must notify the borrower of its

The summary of changes described in paragraph (c)(2)(iv)(A)(1) of this section must immediately follow the information described in paragraph (c)(2)(iv)(A)(2) through (c)(2)(iv)(A)(7) of this section and be substantially similar to the format shown in Sample G-20 or G-21 in appendix G to this part. [066940]	067501	Section 1026.7(b)(1) of Regulation Z requires disclosure of the “previous balance” on the periodic statement used for open-end (not home-secured) plans. [067501]
		067505	Section 1026.7(b)(2) of Regulation Z requires identification of each credit transaction on the periodic statement used for open-end (not home-secured) plans. [067505]
		067510	Section 1026.7(b)(3) of Regulation Z requires the periodic statement used for open-end (not home-secured) plans to disclose any credit to the account during the billing cycle, including the amount and date of the crediting. [067510]
066945	Section 1026.9(c)(2)(iv)(D)(3) of Regulation Z requires certain disclosures when creditors of open-end (not home-secured) plans provide the notice of change in terms required by paragraph (c)(2)(i) separately from the periodic statement. The information described in paragraph (c)(2)(iv)(A)(1) of this section must, at the creditor’s option, be disclosed on the front of the first page of the notice or segregated on a separate page from other information given with the notice. The summary of changes required to be a table pursuant to paragraph (c)(2)(iv)(A)(1) of this section may be on more than one page, and may use both the front and reverse sides, so long as the table begins on the front of the first page of the notice and there is a reference on the first page indicating that the table continues on the following page. The summary of changes described in paragraph (c)(2)(iv)(A)(1) of this section must immediately follow the information described in paragraph (c)(2)(iv)(A)(2) through (c)(2)(iv)(A)(7) of this section and be substantially similar to the format shown in Sample G-20 or G-21 in appendix G to this part. [066945]	067515	Section 1026.7(b)(4) of Regulation Z requires the periodic statement used for open-end (not home-secured) plans to disclose each periodic rate that may be used to compute the finance charge, the range of balances to which it is applicable, and the corresponding annual percentage rate or rates using the term, “Annual Percentage Rate.” For variable rate plans, a statement that the annual percentage rate may vary shall also be disclosed. [067515]
		067520	Section 1026.7(b)(5) of Regulation Z requires the periodic statement used for open-end (not home-secured) plans to disclose the amount of the balance to which a periodic rate was applied and an explanation of how that balance was is determined, using the term “Balance Subject to Interest Rate.” When a balance is determined without first deducting all credits and payments made during the billing cycle, the fact and the amount of the credits and payments shall be disclosed. As an alternative, a creditor that uses a balance computation method identified in Section 1026.60(g) may identify the name of the balance computation method and provide a toll-free telephone number where consumers may obtain more information and how resulting interest charges were determined. [067520]
067101	Section 1026.7(a)(9) of Regulation Z requires the periodic statement used for home-equity plans to disclose the address for notice of billing errors. Alternatively, the address may be provided on the billing rights statement permitted by Section 1026.9(a)(2). [067101]	067525	Section 1026.7(b)(6)(i) of Regulation Z requires the periodic statement used for open-end (not home-secured) plans to disclose the amounts of any charges imposed as part of the plan as stated in Section 1026.7(b)(3) to be

067530	Section 1026.7(b)(6)(ii) of Regulation Z requires the periodic statement used for open-end (not home-secured) plans to disclose the finance charges attributable to periodic interest rates, using the term “Interest Charge.” This disclosure must be grouped together under the heading “Interest Charged,” itemized and totaled by type of transaction, and a total of finance charges attributable to periodic interest rates, using the term “Total Interest,” must be disclosed for the statement period and calendar year-to-date. A creditor shall use a format substantially similar to Sample G-18(A) in appendix G to this part. [067530]	067550	Section 1026.7(b)(9) of Regulation Z requires the periodic statement used for open-end (not home-secured) plans to disclose the address for notice of billing errors. Alternatively, the address may be provided on the billing rights statement permitted by Section 1026.9(a)(2). [067550]
		067555	Section 1026.7(b)(10) of Regulation Z requires the periodic statement used for open-end (not home-secured) plans to disclose the closing date of the billing cycle and the account balance outstanding on that date. [067555]
		067560	Section 1026.7(b)(11) of Regulation Z requires the periodic statement for a credit card account under an open-end (not-home-secured) consumer credit plan, except as provided in paragraph (b)(11)(ii) of this section and in accordance with the format requirements in paragraph (b)(13) of this section, to disclose the following information: (A) the due date for a payment; and (B) the amount of the late-payment fee and any increased periodic rate(s) (expressed as an annual percentage rate(s)) that may be imposed on the account as a result of a late payment. If a range of late payment fees may be assessed, the card issuer may state the range of fees, or the highest fee and an indication that the fee imposed could be lower. If the rate may be increased for more than one feature or balance, the card issuer may state the range of rates or the highest rate that could apply and at the issuer’s option an indication that the rate imposed could be lower. [067560]
067535	Section 1026.7(b)(6)(iii) of Regulation Z requires the periodic statement used for open-end (not home-secured) plans to disclose charges imposed as part of the plan other than charges attributable to periodic interest rates. These charges must be grouped together under the heading “Fees,” be identified consistent with the feature or type, and be itemized. A total of charges, using the term “Fees,” must be disclosed for the statement period and calendar year-to-date using a format substantially similar to Sample G-18(A) in appendix G. [067535]
067540	Section 1026.7(b)(7) of Regulation Z requires creditors that provide change-in-terms notices required by Section 1026.9(c), or a rate increase notice required by Section 1026.9(g), on with periodic statements, to disclose certain information set forth in Section 1026.9 in accordance with the appropriate format requirements. [067540]	067565	Section 1026.7(b)(12)(i) of Regulation Z requires the periodic statement for a credit card account under an open-end (not home-secured) consumer credit plan, except as provided in paragraphs (b)(12)(ii) and (b)(12)(v) of this section, to provide the following disclosures: (A) the required minimum payment warning; (B) minimum repayment estimate; (C) minimum payment total cost estimate; (D) statement that minimum payment repayment estimate and minimum payment total cost estimate are based on the current outstanding balance and

067570	Section 1026.7(b)(12)(ii) of Regulation Z requires the periodic statement for a credit card account under an open-end (not home-secured) consumer credit plan to provide the following disclosures if negative or no amortization occurs when calculating the minimum payment repayment estimate: (A) the required minimum payment warning; (B) required statement regarding the advantage of paying more than the minimum payment; (C) the estimated monthly payment for repayment in 36 months; (D) statement regarding payoff in 3 years if consumer pays the estimated monthly payment; and (E) a toll-free consumer credit counseling telephone number. [067570]	067585	Section 1026.7(b)(13) of Regulation Z requires card issuers to disclose the due date required by paragraph (b)(11) of this section on the front of the first page of the periodic statement. The amount of the late-payment fee and the annual percentage rate(s) required by paragraph (b)(11) of this section shall be stated in close proximity to the due date. The ending balance required by paragraph (b)(10) of this section and the disclosures required by paragraph (b)(12) of this section shall be disclosed in close proximity to the minimum payment due. The due date, late payment fee and annual percentage rate, ending balance, minimum payment due, and disclosures required by paragraph (b)(12) shall be grouped together. Sample G-18(D) in appendix G to this part set forth examples of how these terms may be grouped. [067585]
067575	Section 1026.7(b)(12)(iii) of Regulation Z requires the periodic statement for a credit card account under an open-end (not home-secured) consumer credit plan to provide the disclosures required by paragraph (b)(12)(i) or (b)(12)(ii) in accordance with the format requirements of paragraph (b)(13), and in a format substantially similar to Samples G-18(C)(1), G-18(C)(2), and G-18(C)(3) in Appendix G, as applicable. [067575]	067590	Section 1026.7(b)(14) of Regulation Z requires card issuers of accounts that have an outstanding balance subject to a deferred interest or similar program, to disclose the date by which the outstanding balance must be paid in full in order to avoid the obligation to pay finance charges on the balance on the front of any page of each periodic statement beginning with the first periodic statement issued during the deferred interest period that reflects the deferred interest or similar transaction. The disclosure must be substantially similar to Sample G-18(H) in Appendix G. [067590]
067580	Section 1026.7(b)(12)(iv) of Regulation Z requires a card issuer, to the extent available from the United States Trustee or a bankruptcy administrator, to provide through the toll-free telephone number disclosed pursuant to paragraphs (b)(12)(i) or (b)(12)(ii) the name, street address, telephone number, and Web site address for at least three organizations that have been approved by the United States Trustee or a bankruptcy administrator pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 111(a)(1) to provide credit counseling services in, at the card issuer's option, either the state in which the billing address for the account is located or the state specified by the consumer. The creditor shall mail the notice not later than three business days after the action is taken and shall contain specific reasons for action. If the creditor requires the consumer to request reinstatement of credit privileges, the notice also shall state that fact. [069901]
069501	Section 1026.9(b) of Regulation Z requires certain disclosures when supplemental credit features are added to an existing account or when a credit device is delivered 30 days or more after the consumer opened the account. [069501]	069910	Section 1026.9(c)(2)(i) of Regulation Z requires creditors of open-end (not home-secured) plans to provide a change-in-terms notice whenever a significant change in account terms as described in paragraph (c)(2)(ii) is made to a term required to be disclosed under Section 1026.6(b)(3), (b)(4), or (b)(5) or the required minimum periodic payment is increased. The creditor must provide the written notice of the change at least 45 days prior to the effective date of the change to each consumer who may be affected. [069910]
069601	Section 1026.9(b)(3)(i) of Regulation Z requires certain disclosures for open-end plans not subject to requirements of Section 1026.40, if checks can be used to access a credit card account are provided more than 30 days after account-opening disclosures under Section 1026.6(b) are mailed or delivered, or are provided within 30 days of the account-opening disclosures and the finance charge for the checks differ from the terms previously disclosed. The creditor shall disclose on the front page containing the checks the terms in paragraph (b)(3)(i)(A) through (b)(3)(i)(D) in a tabular format similar to Sample G-19 in Appendix G. [069601]	069915	Section 1026.9(c)(2)(iv)(A) of Regulation Z requires the change in terms notice provided pursuant to paragraph (c)(2)(i) to contain the following information, as applicable: (1) a summary of the changes made to terms required by Sections 1026.6(b)(1) and (b)(2), a description of any increase in the required minimum periodic payment, and a description of any security interest being acquired by the creditor; (2) a statement that changes are being made to the account; (3) notice of opt-out rights; (4) the date the changes will become effective; (5) a statement that the consumer may find additional information about the summarized changes in the notice; (6) a statement regarding the penalty rate; (7) required statements regarding an increase in the annual percentage rate. [069915]
069602	Section 1026.9(b)(3)(ii) of Regulation Z requires the disclosures in paragraph (b)(3)(i) must be accurate as of the time the disclosures are mailed or delivered. A variable annual percentage rate is accurate if it was in effect within 60 days of when the disclosures are mailed or delivered. [069602]
069801	Section 1026.9(c)(1)(i) of Regulation Z requires the creditor to provide a written notice of a change in terms for home-equity plans subject to the requirements of Section 1026.40, whenever any term required to be disclosed under Section 1026.6(a) is changed or the required minimum periodic payment is increased. The notice shall be mailed or delivered at least 15 days prior to the effective date of change. The following disclosures are required, as applicable: (1) a statement that the consumer has the right to reject the change or changes prior to the effective date of the changes, unless the consumer fails to make a required minimum periodic payment within 60 days after the due date for the payment; (2) instructions for rejecting the change or changes, and a toll-free telephone number that the consumer may use to notify the creditor of the rejection; and (3) a statement that if the consumer rejects the change or changes, the consumer's ability to use the account for further advances will be terminated or suspended. [069920]		requires creditors of open-end (not home-secured) plans that disclose the notice of change in terms required by Section 1026.9(c)(2)(i) on or with a periodic statement to disclose the information described in paragraph (c)(2)(iv)(A)(1) of this section on the front of any page of the statement. The summary of changes described in paragraph (c)(2)(iv)(A)(1) of this section must immediately follow the information described in paragraph (c)(2)(iv)(A)(2) through (c)(2)(iv)(A)(7) of this section and be substantially similar to the format show in Sample G-20 or G-21 in appendix G to this part. [069940]
069930	Section 1026.9(c)(2)(iv)(C) of Regulation Z requires certain disclosures for credit card accounts under an open-end (not home-secured) consumer credit plan if changes are made to the account that result from the consumer's failure to make a minimum periodic payment within 60 days of the payment due date. [069930]	069945	Section 1026.9(c)(2)(iv)(D)(3) of Regulation Z requires certain disclosures when creditors of open-end (not home-secured) plans provide the notice of change in terms required by paragraph (c)(2)(i) separately from the periodic statement. The information described in paragraph (c)(2)(iv)(A)(1) of this section must, at the creditor's option, be disclosed on the front of the first page of the notice or segregated on a separate page from other information given with the notice. The summary of changes required to be a table pursuant to paragraph (c)(2)(iv)(A)(1) of this section may be on more than one page, and may use both the front and reverse sides, so long as the table begins on the front of the first page of the notice and there is a reference on the first page indicating that the table continues on the following page. The summary of changes described in paragraph (c)(2)(iv)(A)(1) of this section must immediately follow the information described in paragraph (c)(2)(iv)(A)(2) through (c)(2)(iv)(A)(7) of this section and be substantially similar to the format show in Sample G-20 or G-21 in appendix G to this part. [069945]
069935	Section 1026.9(c)(2)(iv)(D)(1) of Regulation Z requires creditors of open-end (not home-secured) plans who changes a term required to be disclosed pursuant to Sections 1026.6(b)(1) and (b)(2) to provide the information required by this section in a tabular format substantially similar to any of the account-opening tables found in G-17 in appendix G to this part. The table must disclose the changed term and information relevant to the change, if that relevant information is required by Sections 1026.6(b)(1). The new terms shall be described in the same level of detail as required when disclosing the terms under Section 1026.6(b)(2). [069935]	069950	Section 1026.9(c)(2)(vi) of Regulation Z requires creditors of open-end (not home-secured) plans to provide an advance notice of any decrease in the credit limit on an account before an over-the-limit fee or a penalty rate can be imposed solely as a result of the consumer exceeding the newly decreased

070101	Section 1026.9(d)(1) of Regulation Z requires the creditor to disclose the amount of any finance charge imposed prior to its imposition whenever a charge is made at the time of honoring a credit card which the financial institution did not issue. [070101]	070505	Section 1026.9(g)(3)(i) of Regulation Z requires creditors of open-end (not home-secured) plans to provide the following information on the notice sent pursuant to paragraph (g)(1) of this section, as applicable: (1) a statement that the delinquency or default rate or penalty rate has been triggered; (2) the date on which the delinquency or default rate or penalty rate will apply; (3) the circumstances under which the delinquency or default rate or penalty rate will cease to apply to the consumer's account, or that the delinquency or default rate or penalty rate will remain in effect for a potentially indefinite time period; (4) a statement indicating to which balances the delinquency or default rate or penalty rate will be applied; (5) a description of any balances to which the current rate will continue to apply as of the effective date of the rate increase, unless a consumer fails to make a minimum periodic payment within 60 days from the due date for that payment; and (6) for a consumer credit card account plan, a statement of no more than four principal reasons for the rate increase, listed in their order of importance. [070505]
070201	Section 1026.9(e) of Regulation Z requires a card issuer that imposes any annual or other periodic fee to renew a credit or charge card to mail or deliver written notice of renewal at least 30 days or one billing cycle, whichever is less, before mailing or delivering the statement on which the renewal fee is charged to the account. The notice must contain disclosures that would apply if the account were renewed and how and when the cardholder may terminate the account and avoid paying the renewal fee. If disclosures are provided on the back of a periodic statement, a reference must be included on the front of the statement. [070201]
070301	Section 1026.9(f)(1) of Regulation Z requires written notice 30 days before a change in credit card account insurance providers occurs. The notice must explain any increase in the rate, any substantial decreases in coverage, and contain a statement that the consumer may discontinue the credit insurance. [070301]
070401	Section 1026.9(f)(2) of Regulation Z requires written notice 30 days after a change in insurance providers occurs. The notice must provide: (1) the name and address of the new insurance provider, (2) a copy of the new policy or certificate containing the basic terms of insurance and rate to be charged, and (3) a statement that the consumer may discontinue the insurance. [070401]	070510	Section 1026.9(g)(3)(ii) of Regulation Z requires creditors of open-end (not home-secured) plans that disclose the notice required by paragraph (g)(1) of this section on or with the periodic statement to disclose the information described in paragraph (g)(3)(i) of this section in the form of a table on the front of any page of the periodic statement, above the notice described in paragraph (c)(2)(iii)(A) of this section if that notice is provided on the same statement. 070560 Section 1026.9(h) of Regulation Z prohibits creditors that receive a consumer's request to reject a significant change to an account term for credit card accounts under an open-end (not home-secured) consumer credit plan under paragraph (c)(2)(iv)(B) from (i) applying the change to the account; (ii) imposing a fee or charge or treat the account as in default solely as a result of the rejection; or (iii) requiring payment of the balance on the account using a method that is less beneficial to the consumer than one of the methods listed in § 1026.55(c)(2). [070560]

070701 Section 1026.10(a) of Regulation Z requires the creditor to credit a payment to the customer's account as of the date of receipt. [070701]

070801 Section 1026.10(b) of Regulation Z requires that a creditor specify reasonable requirements that enable most consumers to make conforming loan payments. [070801]

070810 Section 1026.10(b)(4) requires a creditor to credit a nonconforming loan payment within five days of receipt. [070810]

070901 Section 1026.10(c) of Regulation Z requires the creditor to make credit adjustments to an account during the next billing cycle following the imposition of late payment or other charges resulting from the creditor's failure to promptly post a consumer's payment. [070901]

071001 Section 1026.10(d) of Regulation Z requires that when a creditor does not receive or accept payments by mail on the due date, the creditor may generally not treat a payment received the next business day as late for any purpose. [071001]

071101 Section 1026.10(e) of Regulation Z prohibits

creditors for credit card accounts under an open-end (not home-secured) consumer credit plan from imposing a separate fee to allow consumers to make a payment by any method, such as mail, electronic, or telephone payments, unless such payment method involves an expedited service by a customer service representative of the creditor. [071101]

071201 Section 1026.10(f) of Regulation Z requires that if a card issuer makes a material change in the address for receiving payments or procedures for handling payments, and such change causes a material delay in the crediting of a payment to the consumer's account during the 60-day period following the date on which such change took effect, the card issuer may not impose any late fee or finance charge for a late payment on the credit card account during the 60-day period following the date on which the change took effect. [071201]

071501 Section 1026.11(a) of Regulation Z requires that when a credit balance in excess of $1 is created on a credit account, the creditor shall—(1) Credit the amount of the credit balance to the consumer's account; or (2) Refund any part of the remaining credit balance within seven business days from receipt of a written request from the consumer; or (3) Make a good faith effort to refund to the consumer by cash, check, or money order, or credit to a deposit account of the consumer, any part of the credit balance remaining in the account for more than six months. [071501]

071502 Section 1026.11(b) of Regulation Z prohibits the creditor from terminating an account prior to its expiration date solely because the consumer does not incur a finance charge. A creditor may terminate an account due to inactivity (as defined in this section) for three or more consecutive months. [071502]

071503 Section 1026.11(c)(1) of Regulation Z requires that card issuers of credit card accounts under an open-end (not home-secured) consumer credit plan must adopt reasonable written policies and procedures designed to ensure that an administrator of an estate of a deceased accountholder can determine the amount of

072701	Section 1026.12(b) of Regulation Z prohibits the creditor from soliciting or accepting payment in excess of a cardholder's liability for unauthorized use, or from misrepresenting a cardholder's liability for unauthorized use. The liability of a cardholder for unauthorized use shall not exceed the lesser of $50 or the amount of money, property, labor, or services obtained by the unauthorized use before notification to the card issuer under paragraph (b)(3) of this section. [072701]	074501	Section 1026.13(d)(2) of Regulation Z prohibits collecting any portion of a disputed amount or deducting any part of a disputed amount or related charges from the cardholder's deposit account, and reporting or threatening to report adversely on a consumer's credit standing because of failure to pay a disputed amount. [074501]
072901	Section 1026.12(c)(2) of Regulation Z prohibits the creditor from reporting a disputed item as delinquent if the cardholder, in accordance with paragraph (c)(1) of this section, withholds payment of the disputed amount until the dispute is settled or judgment is rendered. [072901]	074601	Section 1026.13(d)(3) of Regulation Z prohibits acceleration of any part of the consumer's indebtedness or restricting or closing a consumer's account solely because the consumer has exercised in good faith rights provided by this section. [075301]	077701	Section 1026.15(e) of Regulation Z prohibits the waiver of the right to rescind unless there is a bona fide personal financial emergency. Use of printed forms for waiver of the right of rescind are prohibited. [077701]
075901	Section 1026.13(g) of Regulation Z requires the creditor to promptly provide written notification of the amount owed with regard to the disputed item, as well as when payment is due. The creditor must allow any time period disclosed under Section 1026.6(a)(1) during which the consumer can pay the amount due without incurring additional finance or other charges. [075901]	078501	Section 1026.16 of Regulation Z requires that, if an advertisement for open-end credit states specific credit terms, it shall state only those that actually are or will be arranged or offered by the creditor, and if certain specific open-end credit terms are advertised, prescribed additional disclosures must be made. [078501]
077101	Section 1026.15(a) of Regulation Z requires the creditor to provide each consumer whose ownership interest is or will be subject to the security interest in a credit plan secured by the consumer's principal dwelling the right to rescind the transaction. The creditor must honor the right to rescind until midnight of the third business day following the delivery of the right to rescind notice or delivery of all material disclosures, whichever occurs last. [077101]	078502	Section 1026.16(c)(1) of Regulation Z states if a catalog or other multiple-page advertisement, or an electronic advertisement (such as an advertisement appearing on an Internet Web site), gives information in a table or schedule in sufficient detail to permit determination of the disclosures required by paragraph (b) of this section, it shall be considered a single advertisement if: (i) the table or schedule is clearly and conspicuously set forth; and (ii) any statement of terms set forth in § 1026.6 appearing anywhere else in the catalog or advertisement clearly refers to the page or a location where the table or schedule begins. [078502]
077301	Section 1026.15(b) of Regulation Z requires that in any transaction subject to rescission the creditor deliver two copies of the written notice of the right to rescind to each consumer entitled to rescind (one copy to each if the notice is delivered in electronic form in accordance with the consumer consent and other applicable provisions of the E-Sign Act). The notice shall identify the transaction and clearly and conspicuously disclose: (i) the retention or acquisition of a security interest in the consumer's principal dwelling; (ii) the consumer's right to rescind; (iii) how to exercise the right to rescind; (iv) the effects of rescission; and (v) the date the rescission period expires. [077301]	078503	Section 1026.16(c)(2) of Regulation Z states a catalog or other multiple-page advertisement or an electronic advertisement (such as an advertisement appearing on an Internet Web site) complies with this paragraph if the table or schedule of terms includes all appropriate disclosures for a representative scale of amounts up to the level of the more commonly sold higher-priced property or services offered. [078503]
077501	Section 1026.15(c) of Regulation Z prohibits a creditor from disbursing funds until after the rescission period has expired and the creditor has reasonably satisfied that the consumer has not rescinded the transaction. [077501]	078601	Section 1026.16(d)(1) of Regulation Z requires that, if the finance charge or other charges or payment terms are stated in an advertisement for a home equity plan, the advertisement must clearly and conspicuously set forth the following: (i) any loan fee that is a percentage of the credit limit and an estimate of any other fees for opening the plan stated as a single dollar amount or a reasonable range; (ii) the annual percentage rate; and (iii) the maximum annual percentage rate that may be imposed by the plan. [078601]	079001	Section 1026.16(d)(5) of Regulation Z prohibits an advertisement from referring to a home-equity plan as "free money" or containing a similarly misleading term. [079001]

078701	Section 1026.16(d)(2) of Regulation Z (Home Equity Plan) requires that, if a discount or premium rate is advertised in a variable rate plan, the advertisement must state with equal prominence and in close proximity to the initial rate: (i) the period of time such initial rate will be in effect; and (ii) a reasonably current annual percentage rate that would have been in effect based on the index and margin. [078701]	079101	Section 1026.16(d)(6)(i)(C) of Regulation Z requires that additional disclosures must be made under this section if any annual percentage rate that may be applied to a home equity plan is a promotional rate or if any payment is a promotional payment. [079101]
078801	Section 1026.16(d)(3) of Regulation Z (Home Equity Plan) requires that, if an advertisement contains a statement about a minimum periodic payment, it shall also state with equal prominence and in close proximity to the minimum periodic payment that a balloon payment may result. If a balloon payment will occur when the consumer makes only the minimum payment under the plan, an advertisement that contains a statement about a minimum periodic payment shall also state with equal prominence and in close proximity to the minimum payment statement: (i) that a balloon payment will result; and (ii) the amount and timing of the balloon payment that will result if the consumer makes only the minimum payments for the maximum period of time that the consumer is permitted to make such payments. [078801]	079301	Section 1026.16(f) of Regulation Z prohibits an advertisement from referring to an annual percentage rate as "fixed," or use a similar term, unless the advertisement also specifies a time period that the rate will be fixed and the rate will not increase during that period, or if no such time period is provided, the rate will not increase while the plan is open. [079301]
		079401	Section 1026.16(g) of Regulation Z requires that additional disclosures must be made under this section if any annual percentage rate that may be applied to an open-end (not home-secured plan) is a promotional rate. [079401]
		079430	Section 1026.16(g)(3) of Regulation Z requires that if any annual percentage rate that may be applied to an open-end (not home-secured) plan is an introductory rate, the term "introductory" or "intro" must be in immediate proximity to each listing of the introductory rate in a written or electronic advertisement. [079430]
078901	Section 1026.16(d)(4) of Regulation Z (Home Equity Plan) requires that any statement about tax deductibility must not be misleading in advertisements. If an advertisement distributed in paper form or through the Internet is for a home-equity plan secured by the consumer's principal dwelling, and the advertisement states that the advertised extension of credit may exceed the fair market value of the dwelling, the advertisement shall clearly and conspicuously state that: (i) the interest on the portion of the credit extension that is greater than the fair market value of the dwelling is not tax deductible for Federal income tax purposes; and (ii) the consumer should consult a tax advisor. 		080101	Section 1026.17(a) of Regulation Z requires a creditor to make the disclosures required by this subpart, except as required by § 1026.19(e), (f), and (g), clearly and conspicuously in writing, in a form the consumer may keep. The disclosures required by this subpart may be provided in electronic form, subject to compliance with the consumer consent and other applicable provisions of the Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act (E-Sign Act). The disclosures required by §§ 1026.17(g), 1026.19(b), and 1026.24 may be provided to the consumer in electronic form

	without regard to the consumer consent or other provisions of the E-Sign Act in the circumstances set forth in those sections. The disclosures shall be grouped together, shall be segregated from everything else, and shall not contain any information not directly related to the disclosures required under §§ 1026.18, 1026.20(c) and (d), or 1026.47. The disclosures required by § 1026.20(d) shall be provided as a separate document from all other written materials. The itemization of the amount financed under § 1026.18(c)(1) must be separate from the other disclosures under that section. This section further requires that disclosure of the terms "finance charge" and "annual percentage rate" when required to be disclosed under §§ 1026.18(d) and (e) together with a corresponding amount or percentage rate be more conspicuous than other disclosures, except the creditor's identity under § 1026.18(a) and private education loan disclosures made in compliance with § 1026.47. For private education loan disclosures made in compliance with § 1026.47, the term "annual percentage rate" and the corresponding percentage rate must be less conspicuous than the term "finance charge" and corresponding amount under § 1026.18(d), the interest rate under §§ 1026.47(b)(1)(i) and (c)(1), and the notice of the right to cancel under § 1026.47(c)(4). [080101]		disclosure is unknown, the disclosure must be based on the best information reasonably available and the creditor must state that the disclosure is an estimate. (Appendix D provides a method of calculating the APR and other disclosures for construction loans, which may be used at the creditor's option, in disclosing construction financing.) [080701]
		081101	Section 1026.17(c)(5) of Regulation Z requires, for demand obligations, that the creditor make disclosures based on an assumed maturity of one year, except where an alternate maturity date is stated in the loan contract. [081101]
		081301	Section 1026.17(d) of Regulation Z requires, when a transaction involves multiple consumers and the right of rescission under Section 1026.23 is applicable, that the creditor make disclosures to each consumer who has the right to rescind. [081301]
		081501	Section 1026.17(f) of Regulation Z requires, when disclosures are given before consummation and a subsequent event makes them inaccurate, that the creditor make new disclosures if there is any changed term unless the term was based on an estimate and labeled as such or if the disclosed annual percentage rate varies by more than the tolerance allowed by Section 1026.22(a), except for private education loan disclosures made in compliance with § 1026.47. [081501]
080501	Section 1026.17(b) of Regulation Z requires the creditor to make disclosures before consummation of the transaction. Special timing requirements are set forth in § 1026.19(a) for certain residential mortgage transactions, and in §§ 1026.19(b) and 1026.20(c) and (d) for certain variable-rate transactions. For private education loan disclosures made in compliance with § 1026.47, special timing requirements are set forth in § 1026.46(d). This section does not apply to the disclosure required by §§ 1026.19(e), (f), and (g) and 1026.20(e). [080501]	081701	Section 1026.17(g) of Regulation Z requires, except for private education loan disclosures made in accordance with § 1026.47 and mortgage disclosures made in compliance with § 1026.19(a) or (e), (f), and (g), that if a creditor receives a purchase order or request for an extension of credit by mail, telephone, or facsimile machine without face-to-face or direct telephone solicitation, the creditor may delay the disclosures until the due date of the first payment. This delay in providing disclosures is allowed if the following information is made available in written or electronic form before the actual purchase order or request: (1) The cash price or the principal loan amount; (2) The total sales

[081701]		the prescribed requirements for exclusion from disclosure are not met. [082501]
081702	Section 1026.17(h) of Regulation Z states that, except for mortgage disclosures made in compliance with § 1026.19(a) or (e), (f), and (g), if a credit sale is one of a series made under an agreement that provides for subsequent sales to be added to an outstanding balance, the creditor may delay the required disclosures until the due date of the first payment for the current sale, if the following two conditions are met: (1) The consumer has approved in writing the annual percentage rate or rates, the range of balances to which they apply, and the method of treating any unearned finance charge on an existing balance and (2) The creditor retains no security interest in any property after the creditor has received payments equal to the cash price and any finance charge attributable to the sale of that property. [081702]	082701	Section 1026.18(d) of Regulation Z requires disclosure of the "finance charge," using that term, and a brief description such as "the dollar amount the credit will cost you". The finance charge shall be considered accurate for mortgage loans if it is understated by no more than $100, or if it is greater than the amount required to be disclosed. The finance charge shall be considered accurate for non-mortgage loans if it is not more than $5 above or below the exact finance charge in a transaction involving an amount financed of $1,000 or less, or not more than $10 above or below the exact finance charge in a transaction involving an amount financed of more than $1,000. [082701]
		082702	Section 1026.18(d) of Regulation Z requires the inclusion of loan fees, points, finder's fees or similar charges in the finance charge disclosure, as prescribed in Section 1026.4(b)(3). [082702]
081801	Section 1026.17(i) of Regulation Z requires the creditor to make complete disclosures at the time the creditor and consumer agree upon the repayment schedule for the total obligation under a student credit program. At that time, a new set of disclosures must be made of all applicable items under § 1026.18. [081801]	082703	Section 1026.18(d) of Regulation Z requires inclusion of charges or premiums for credit life, accident, health or loss of income insurance in the finance charge disclosure, if the conditions as described in Section 1026.4(d)(1) are not met. [082703]
		082704	Section 1026.18(d) of Regulation Z requires inclusion of charges or premiums for insurance against loss of or damage to property or liability arising out of ownership or use of property in the finance charge disclosure, when the conditions described in Section 1026.4(d)(2) are not met. [082704]
082101	Section 1026.18(a) of Regulation Z requires the creditor to provide the customer with a copy of the disclosure statement that identifies the creditor. [082101]
082301	Section 1026.18(b) of Regulation Z requires the creditor to properly calculate and disclose the "amount financed," using that term, and to include a brief description such as "the amount of credit provided to you or on your behalf". [082301]	082705	Section 1026.18(d) of Regulation Z requires the inclusion in the finance charge disclosure of certain fees prescribed by law or premiums paid for insurance in lieu of perfecting a security interest, if the conditions as described in Section 1026.4(e) are not met. [082705]
082501	Section 1026.18(c) of Regulation Z requires that the creditor provide the consumer with an accurate itemization of the amount financed, if	083501	Section 1026.18(e) of Regulation Z requires disclosure of the "annual percentage rate," using the term, and a brief description such as

[083501]	085301	Section 1026.18(k)(1) of Regulation Z requires, when an obligation includes a finance charge computed from time to time on the unpaid principal balance, that the creditor indicate whether or not a charge may be imposed for paying all or part of the loan's principal balance before the date on which the principal is due. [085301]
083502	Section 1026.18(e) of Regulation Z requires that the annual percentage rate be accurately disclosed, as defined in Section 1026.22(a). [083502]
083901	Section 1026.18(f)(1) of Regulation Z requires the following disclosures for variable rate transactions not secured by a consumer's principal dwelling or secured by a principal dwelling with a term of one year or less: (1) circumstances under which the rate may increase, (2) any limitations on the increase, (3) the effect of an increase, and (4) an example of payment terms that could result from an increase. [083901]	085501	Section 1026.18(k)(2) of Regulation Z requires, when an obligation includes a finance charge other than that described in Section 1026.18(k)(1), that the creditor disclose whether or not the consumer is entitled to a rebate of any finance charge if the obligation is prepaid in full or in part. [085501]
084001	Section 1026.18(f)(2) of Regulation Z requires the following disclosures for variable rate transactions secured by the consumer's principal dwelling with a term greater than one year: (1) the fact that transaction contains a variable-rate feature, and (2) a statement that variable-rate disclosures have been provided earlier. [084001]	085701	Section 1026.18(l) of Regulation Z requires disclosure of any dollar or percentage charge that may be imposed before maturity due to a late payment, other than a deferral or extension charge. [085701]
084501	Section 1026.18(g) of Regulation Z requires that the number, amounts and timing of payments be accurately disclosed. [084501]	085901	Section 1026.18(m) of Regulation Z requires disclosure of the fact that a creditor has or will acquire an interest in property purchased as part of the transaction, or in other property identified by item or type. [085901]
084701	Section 1026.18(h) of Regulation Z requires disclosure of the "total of payments," using that term, and a brief description such as "the amount you will have paid when you have made all scheduled payments". [084701]	086101	Section 1026.18(q) of Regulation Z requires, in a residential mortgage transaction, that the bank provide a statement as to whether or not a subsequent purchaser of the dwelling may assume the obligation on its original terms. [086101]
084901	Section 1026.18(i) of Regulation Z requires the creditor to disclose that an obligation has a demand feature and, as applicable, that disclosures are based on an assumed one-year maturity. [084901]	086301	Section 1026.18(r) of Regulation Z requires that, if a creditor requires a consumer to maintain a certain type of deposit as a condition of a specific transaction, a statement be made that the annual percentage rate does not reflect the effect of the required deposit. [086301]
085101	Section 1026.18(j) of Regulation Z requires in a credit sale, that the creditor disclose the "total sale price," using that term, and a descriptive explanation such as "the total price of your purchase on credit, including your down payment of $___." [085101]	086401	Section 1026.18(s)(1) of Regulation Z requires the information in paragraph (s)(2)-(4) of this section to be in the form of a table, with no more than five columns, and with headings and format substantially similar to Model Clause H-4(E), H-4(F), H-4(G), or H-4(H) in Appendix H to this part. Except as provided in § 1026.38(t)(5), the disclosures shall contain only the information required by § 1026.38(a) through § 1026.38(s) and shall be made in the same order, and positioned relative to the master headings, headings, subheadings, labels, and similar designations in the same manner, as shown in form H-25, as set forth in appendix H. [095921]

095922 Section 1026.38(t)(2) of Regulation Z requires that if any master heading, heading, subheading, label, or similar designation contains the word “estimated” or a capital letter designation in form H-25, the corresponding heading, label, or similar designation is required to contain the word “estimated” and the applicable capital letter designation. [095922]

095923 Section 1026.38(t)(3) of Regulation Z requires the following, except as provided in § 1026.38(t)(5):
 (i) For a transaction subject to § 1026.19(f) that is a federally related mortgage loan, as defined in Regulation X, 12 CFR § 1024.2, the disclosures must be made using form H-25, set forth in appendix H to this part.
 (ii) For any other transaction subject to this section, the disclosures must be made with headings, content, and format substantially similar to form H-25, set for the in appendix H.

160101 Section 1030.3(a) of Regulation DD requires financial institutions make the disclosures required under §§ 1030.4 through 1030.6, as applicable, clearly and conspicuously in writing and in a form the consumer may keep. The disclosures required by this part may be provided to the consumer in electronic form, subject to compliance with the consumer consent and other applicable provisions of the Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act (E-Sign Act). The disclosures required by §§ 1030.4(a)(2) and 1030.8 may be provided to the consumer in electronic form without regard to the consumer consent or other provisions of the E-Sign Act in the circumstances set forth in those sections. Disclosures for each account offered by an institution may be presented separately or combined with disclosures for the institution's other accounts, as long as it is clear which disclosures are applicable to the consumer's account. [160101]

160501 Section 1030.3(b) of Regulation DD requires that the disclosures reflect the legal obligation of the account agreement between the consumer and the depository institution. (Disclosures may be made in other languages provided they are available in English.) [160501]

161501 Section 1030.3(d) of Regulation DD requires

162001 Section 1030.3(e) of Regulation DD requires that the annual percentage yield must be disclosed in an oral response to a consumer's inquiry about interest rates payable. The interest rate may also be disclosed but no other rate. [162001]

162501 Section 1030.3(f) of Regulation DD requires that the annual percentage yield, the annual percentage yield earned, and the interest rate shall be rounded to the nearest one-hundredth of one percentage point (.01%) and expressed to two decimal places, and the annual percentage yield and the annual percentage yield earned must be disclosed with an accuracy of not more than one-twentieth of one percentage point (.05%) above or below the yields determined in accordance with Appendix A. [162501]

163001 Section 1030.4(a)(1) of Regulation DD requires a financial institution provide account disclosures to a consumer before an account is opened or service provided, whichever is earlier. If a consumer is not present at the institution when the account is opened or service provided, and has not already received the disclosures, the institution shall mail or deliver the disclosures no later than 10 business days after the account is opened or service is provided, whichever is earlier. If a consumer, not present at the institution, uses electronic means (e.g. an Internet Web site) to open an account or request a service, the disclosures of this section must be provided before the account is opened or service provided.
