Good day,

I am founder and Executive Director of Bright Futures Atlanta which has been present on the west side of Atlanta for almost 2 decades. Throughout the years SunTrust and its Foundation has partnered with us in many ways to help provide programs with excellence to the youth of our city.

We are excited about the merger between SunTrust and BB&T, and look forward to seeing that partnership continue to support orgs like ours. This partnership will insure that the next generation are self-supporting, effective members of society.

Thanks again to SunTrust, SunTrust Foundation and BB&T for investing in our community.

Best Regards,

Philip Ross
