Summary: Staff from the Federal Reserve Board, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, and the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (collectively, the agencies) met with representatives of the nonprofits Greenlining Institute, Public Citizen, and Americans for Financial Reform Education Fund. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss the agencies' notice of proposed rulemaking (NPR) on an approach to modernize the regulations that implement the Community Reinvestment Act (CRA). The nonprofit representatives asked questions and shared views on the CRA NPR proposals regarding community development definitions, particularly the category of disaster preparedness and climate resiliency.
