

FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION

Re: Lighthouse Bank
Santa Cruz, California

Application for Federal Deposit Insurance

ORDER

The FDIC has satisfactorily resolved the factors enumerated in section 6 of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, as they relate to the application for Federal deposit insurance submitted by Lighthouse Bank, a proposed new bank to be located at 111 Mission Street, Santa Cruz, California, and one courier service branch. Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that the application be approved, subject to the following conditions:

- (1) Beginning paid-in capital funds shall not be less than $16,000,000.
- (2) The institution's Tier 1 capital to assets leverage ratio (as defined in the appropriate capital regulation and guidance from the institution's primary federal regulator) shall be maintained at not less than eight percent (8%) throughout the first three years of operation and that an adequate allowance for loan and lease losses will be provided.
- (3) Any changes in proposed management or the proposed ownership of 10% or more of stock, including new acquisitions of or subscriptions to 10% or more of stock, shall be approved by the FDIC prior to opening.
- (4) The persons selected to serve as the principal operating officers shall be acceptable to the FDIC Regional Director.
- (5) An accrual accounting system shall be adopted for maintaining the financial records of the institution.
- (6) Federal deposit insurance shall not become effective until the applicant is authorized to operate as a State bank by the appropriate State authority.
- (7) Prior to the effective date of Federal deposit insurance, the institution shall obtain surety bond coverage in a sufficient amount to conform to generally accepted banking practices.
- (8) The institution shall obtain an audit of its financial statements by an independent public accountant annually for at least the first three years after deposit insurance is effective and shall submit to the FDIC Regional Director (i) a copy of the audited annual financial statements and the independent public auditor's report thereon within 90 days after the end of the depository institution's fiscal year, (ii) a copy of any other reports by the independent auditor (including any management letters) within 15 days after their receipt by the institution, and (iii) written notification within 15 days when a change in the institution's independent auditor occurs.

- (9) The institution shall operate within the parameters of the business plan submitted as part of the application for deposit insurance. During the first three years of operation, the bank shall notify the FDIC Regional Director of any proposed major deviation or material change from the submitted plan 60 days before consummating the change.
- (10) During the first three years of operation, any proposed additions to senior management or the board of directors shall be submitted to the Regional Director for non-objection. Such notice shall be submitted at least 30 days prior to the proposed employment or election to the Board. In addition, any change in the duties or responsibilities of executive officers or directors shall receive the prior approval of the FDIC during the first three years of operation.
- (11) Any stock benefit plan adopted by the board of directors shall comply with the FDIC Statement of Policy on Applications for Deposit Insurance, dated August 31, 1998. Furthermore, during the first three years of operations, the bank shall notify the Regional Director of any proposed stock benefit plan, or any material deviation or change from any previously submitted stock benefit plan, 60 days before implementation of the plan or consummation of the change.
- (12) If deposit insurance has not become effective within twelve months from the date of this ORDER, the consent granted herein shall expire, unless the Corporation approves a request for an extension of the deadline prior to the expiration.
- (13) Until the bank is established, the Corporation shall have the right to alter, suspend, or withdraw the said commitment should any interim development warrant such action.

By Order of the Regional Director of the San Francisco Regional Office, acting pursuant to delegated authority for the Board of Directors of the FDIC.

Dated at San Francisco, California this 17th day of October, 2007.
