This proposed regulation should pass because this will help banks that are below the well capitalized requirement of FDIC. During this economic environment wherein treasury yields are almost inexistence, using the national average rate would help banks that are adequately capitalized and can compete with banks that were able to take advantage of the TARF money.

Lito P. Gonzales
VP & Chief Financial Officer
Golden Security Bank
2112 Walnut Grove Avenue
Rosemead, CA 91770