Dear FDIC:

The special assessment on banks is jeopardizing small community banking industries.

No matter what the fee increase might be, Main Street banks like mine, cannot handle it.

Please take other ways of funding FDIC under consideration since small banks are not responsible for today`s crisis.

What about a special risk premium for large banks in question or a loan from the industry itself?

There are other options that wouldn`t impact healthy community banking.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely:

Kathryn Struckhoff.
