Subject: Assessments, RIN 3064-AD35

To Whom It May Concern:

I am not in favor of increasing a one-time special assessment. This is costly and burdensome to community banks. Why should we help bail out the failing banks? These banks should foot their own bill. Community Banks did not help them perform their risky operations, so why should we help bail them out? I believe you should reconsider the special assessment.

Sincerely,

LaMarlowe Weldon
