

Public Comments on Proposed Establishment of Joint Standards for Assessing Diversity Policies and Practices of Regulated Entities:=====

Title: Proposed Establishment of Joint Standards for Assessing Diversity Policies and Practices of Regulated Entities

FR Document Number: 2013-25142

RIN:

Publish Date: 10/25/2013 12:00:00 AM

Submitter Info:

First Name: Nathan

Last Name: Sachritz

Country: United States

Comment: The Fed, CFPB, OCC, FDIC, NCUA, and SEC plan to assess the diversity policies and practices of entities regulated by them. They plan to do this because the Dodd-Frank Act directs them each to have an Office of Minority and Women Inclusion.

This seems to be duplication of what the EEOC is already responsible for. The redundancy would be a waste of precious resources, and outside the expertise and charters of these agencies.

The Fed, CFPB, OCC, FDIC, NCUA, and SEC plan to assess the diversity policies and practices of entities regulated by them. They plan to do this because the Dodd-Frank Act directs them each to have an Office of Minority and Women Inclusion.

This seems to be duplication of what the EEOC is already responsible for. The redundancy would be a waste of precious resources, and outside the expertise and charters of these agencies.