SEC commission is hurting commodity public companies by requiring climate change political correctness instead of real financial , ...In February 2010, SEC issued Commission Guidance Regarding Disclosure Related to Climate Change , referred to as the 2010 Guidance, calendar year-end companies with upcoming annual reports on Form 10-K should evaluate whether their disclosures concerning climate change are consistent with the new guidance. how publicly traded corporations should apply existing SEC disclosure rules to certain mandatory financial filings with the SEC regarding the risk that climate change developments may have on their businesses to outline the agency's views on existing disclosure requirements as they apply to climate change matters and assist companies in satisfying those requirements. SEC's guidance also states that the Commission will determine whether further guidance or rulemaking relating to climate change disclosure is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors, which we refer to in this report as determining what information investors need. SEC's 2010 Guidance, which identifies some channels, and interviewed representatives of nongovernmental organizations, including C2ES, Ceres, and CDP (an international nonprofit organization, formerly known as the Carbon Disclosure Project, ; Why are they using a international non profit ?? .. This is non since, all rules with climate change should be rescinded , in fact
