Dear Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond,

I am writing to provide comments in support of the work BB&T is doing in our community. For several years, BB&T has supported Piedmont Housing Alliance's mission to provide affordable housing solutions in the Charlottesville area. BB&T has been a financial supporter of our housing counseling work, has helped us upgrade the community center classroom at one of our affordable apartment communities, and has also brought their BB&T bus to that same community to help residents learn more about free ways to prepare their taxes and improve their credit. We appreciate the commitment BB&T has demonstrated and look forward to growing our partnership. Thank you for the opportunity to provide these comments.

Best,
Karen
