To Whom It may Concern;

I want to voice my overwhelming support to the proposed merger of SunTrust Bank and BB&T Bank. It has been my privilege as the Banking and Financial Services Industry Relationship Manager to work with both of these fine organizations. They are both truly committed to the communities that they serve. Not only are they generous financially but they also provide expertise, volunteerism and advocacy for our mission. Many of their Senior leaders serve on non-profit boards as well as serve on our internal boards and committees. I think the merger will only increase their commitment to our community.

Thanks
