Subject: Comments on overdraft banking practices

I have been a victim of [Name of Financial Institution] selective check/transaction processing by highest to lowest amount instead of by order received, resulting in a cascade of overdraft fees I fought to no avail. I'm also aware of the prejudicial practice at [Name of Financial Institution] of dunning me when my partner does the same thing and is not charged. He does make more than me, but otherwise our banking methods and timing are the same. We are in the process of switching to a credit union.

Please hold the bank's feet to the fire on these and other predatory practices.

Thank you,
