Subject: [EXTERNAL MESSAGE] RIN 3064-ZA06

The FDIC is seeking feedback from community banks, other FDIC-supervised institutions, and other interested parties on existing FDIC methods and efforts to provide technical assistance. The FDIC requests input on strategies to improve the effectiveness of these offerings. The FDIC also seeks comment on both the content and delivery method of various technical assistance offerings and on other steps the FDIC could take to increase the level and effectiveness of technical assistance offered to the industry.

Regarding the above matter in red, we would like to see more assistance with online training videos regarding consumer compliance and other matters that may assist with safety and soundness. An example for safety and soundness would be for the upcoming changes of the ALLL. Basically the transition to CECL.

These training can assist with the interpretation of some of the regulations.

The videos would be more effective in power point format to include question and answers section, and also include sample documents of disclosures and/or examples of transactions. For example, when it involves Regulation CC or Regulation E.

Thank you,
