Re: Comments-RIN 3064-ZA25

Dear Mr. Sheesley:

To the best of my knowledge, ProGrowth Bank is not currently using or considering potential digital assets activities. We are aware that bank customers are using bank issued debit cards to purchase digital assets but that is the extent of the bank's involvement at this time.

ProGrowth Bank is following developments with digital assets and I am pleased that the FDIC is reviewing these issues and will hopefully provide future guidance.

Please let me know if additional information is needed.

Warm regards,

Susan E. Keithahn
President and C.O.O
ProGrowth Bank
