Name: Angelisa Harris
Most recent position: Regional Manager, Community Affairs

Division: Division of Depositor and Consumer Protection

Location: Chicago, IL

When and where joined the FDIC: I joined the Resolution Trust Corporation in 1992 in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, and formally transitioned to the FDIC in Washington, D.C., in 1998.

Career highlights: 16 amazing assignments in Alaska.

Retirement Date: June 3, 2020

Plans for retirement: Just like a student graduating, the book by Dr. Seuss comes to mind, "Oh the Places You Will Go!" This next step is not so much the destination of "retirement", but just the beginning of the next leg on my wonderful life journey. It will include a period of much needed rest and losing my "COVID-10" (i.e., the 10 pounds I gained from home cooking during the pandemic). There will indeed be some travel and adventure, but it won't be the main focus of my retirement years. I hope to remain purpose-driven, peppering each day with a little bit of structure, service to others, and a whole lot of fun!

What do those plans include? Fostering/mentoring youth on the cusp of aging out of the foster-care system; learning how to proficiently play the piano; joining a local chess club; taking culinary, divinity, and legal courses; biking; learning to fish; expounding upon my family history and genealogy; nurturing my love for African-American art; and enjoying the company of family and friends. MOVING ON engagement and making contributions in underserved communities are also on the horizon. I just hope I have enough time to do it all!

Comments and thoughts: I've done a lot of work in the legislative branch of government, economic development, and financial regulatory sector in my career, but my core passion is economic inclusion and anything that can unleash the power of the financial sector and equip organizations to help households, businesses, and communities. The work I have been responsible for here at the FDIC, the team I supervised, and the partners I collaborated with helped to do just that. I've learned so much during my career at the FDIC and developed some wonderful friendships that I will take with me. Always remember, the work you undertake here at the FDIC is important, and that work ultimately touches the everyday lives of real people in real communities. Be honorable, be kind, be safe, and be happy! 🏠
